HON. MORROW B. LOWRY, in reply to a letter signed by three hundred citizens of Titusville, Crawford county, has announced himself a candidate for re-election to the State Senate.

GENERAL SHERMAN has been obliged to abandon his proposed trip to the Mediterranean, his presence on the frontier being necessary during the prevalence of the Indian hostilities.

THE trustees of the State Agricultural College met at the College on Friday, nearly a full board present. The Committee to receive bids for two model farms, in accordance with the act passed by the last Legislature, made a report, and some ten or twelve farms were offered. A Committee was subsequently appointed to visit the different farms and others, and are to report at the next meeting, when two farms are to be selected.

IT is said the proposed Fenian raid is taking a definite shape. A secret circular has been distributed to all the circles calling them to arms. Munitions of war in large quantities have been taken toward the border and secreted ready for use when wanted. Quite a number of persons, supposed to be Fenians, are in St. Albans, Vermont. Fifty thousand troops are ready to take the field, backed by fifty thousand more in case of need.

MAX STRAKOSCH's opera troupe, which left Chicago for Cincinnati, on a special train Monday morning, at eight o'clock, via the Chicago and Great Eastern Railroad, met with a severe accident near Logansport, Indiana, which disabled a number of the company. The train, consisting of an engine and three coaches, struck on a broken rail, and the three coaches were thrown down an embankment. Mme. Parepa escaped unhurt. Brignoli received a severe contusion of the shoulder, which will probably prevent his singing for a week. Rosa was struck in the face and has a nose ridiculously swollen. Lagrassa, a female chorister, had her collar bone broken. Massamiliani got a severe cut on the head, but is not dangerously injured. Brignoli's valet sustained severe internal injuries. Nearly all of the choristers and orchestra received slight injuries. A fresh train relieved the wrecked troupe and conveyed them to Cincinnati, where they arrived yesterday morning.

THE workingmen's Advocate keeps the following warning standing in a conspicuous place in its columns. We give it the benefit of our circulation, though we have an indistinct recollection of seeing in our cotemporary some weeks ago, that the lock-out in Pittsburgh ended in the success of the strikers. Here is the paragraph:

"The lock-out still continues in the stove foundries, and in some of our rolling mills in this city and vicinity. Men of these branches will please give Pittsburgh a wide berth in their travels, as there are more mechanics now representing these trades than can obtain 'a fair day's wages for a fair day's work.'"

It is a good time to remind our friends of what we said when the strike was at its height—but which they affected to laugh at—that the question was not so much what the price of labor should be as who will be able to get permanent labor at any price. Does not the warning we have given quite amount to positive proof of the entire accuracy of our statement? We will now add to it, that less wages will be paid before greater are—and those who longer neglect to obtain—if they can—permanent situations at offered prices, will do themselves and their families an injury they will long regret.

Sunday Liquor Law in Philadelphia.

For the first time "within the recollection of the oldest inhabitant"—we believe that is the phrase—Sunday liquor selling in Philadelphia was legally suppressed on Sunday last, and for once they had a sober Sabbath. The people of that city are equally surprised and delighted. One says "the obedience to law on the part of those who have so long enjoyed the privilege of conducting one-sixth more business than the rest of the community, appears to have been honest and real, and is highly creditable to the tavern-keepers of Philadelphia." As a matter of course, the criminal record made a small show—the "old drunks" furnishing the greatest number of arrests—and serious thoughts are already entertained of expunging Blue Monday from the calendar. The question must come into every mind—why cannot every day be so—and everywhere?

Human Nature and Hand Organs.

We occasionally make human nature in the street a study, reading it from a third story window. We have always been somewhat puzzled with street music, especially the hand organ, the theory and the facts about its effects being so different. It is extensively regarded, sometimes even anathematized, as a nuisance, and yet is largely enjoyed as a gratification. Pope's sentiment about the Parian spring, and his direction to drink deep or taste not, are properly reversed here. Deep draughts of street music, our experience does not prompt us to recommend; at a distance—the length of distance no objection—the faintest airs of it strike the fancy agreeably. The question whether a hand organ is an auxiliary to charity we respectfully resign to the debating societies. One of Hogarth's best comic pictures was the enraged musician, in which street music certainly did not excite emotions of a charitable kind in the bosom of the chief figure, who is represented as frantic with the horrid dissonance, and avenging himself by hurling missiles from his window at the itinerant serenaders. But we will not dispute the point.

In the debouchure of the Postoffice alley, opposite our window, has been for some days located one of those musical machines, the construction of which requires infinitely more genius and skill than the working of them. The performer is a small boy, in the full costume of a United States sailor. In front of the instrument stands a stalwart, fine formed, full proportioned man, except that the casualties of war have deprived him of both his hands and portions of his arms. He too is in full seaman's rig. His mutilation was in the service of our country, while with other brave tars and marines, aiding the successful assault on Fort Fisher.

Before this man bearing a medal of honor on his bosom, passes the usual moving panorama of the crowded street. Frequent contributions are deposited in the box suspended before him. They are from all classes of persons, as classes in the streets are judged of—by their dress and manners. We note a few in our brief view of the scene: A middle aged woman, very plainly and not over tidily dressed, with a shawl over her head, doing duty both for shawl and bonnet; a lame man; a small lad, poorly clad—perhaps a news boy, whose father died in the war; another lame man, three or four persons at once—nothing particular in their manner; a woman hurrying to market with a small basket stops a moment to drop in her gift; a well known city lawyer gives money, and a kind word, we judge, from the smile it brings upon the bronzed face of the sailor. The current flows on. A woman with a handkerchief at her eyes, gives her money, and goes away crying to mix in the crowd—she is dressed in mourning—Andersonville, perhaps! This affecting episode of a moment brings out a crowd of givers. Another lame man; a little girl, barefooted; two handsomely dressed ladies, a city merchant; another lawyer; woman dressed in black; a colored man introduces his boy, both ragged, and chats and laughs a moment—at Fort Fisher, too, very likely; after a lull in the contributions, a spruce young man walks forward drawing a bill between his fingers to its full length and depositing it slowly, endwise, in the box—couldn't be less than a quarter, from its length. And so it went on, many passing, and many giving their charity to the sailor, who lost his hands in serving the country, the kindness, whatever the amount, or the motive or appearance of the giver, being acknowledged gratefully and with as graceful a salute as his mutilated arm allowed him to make.

THE Boston religious liberals will shortly hold a meeting for the comparison of notes and an inquiry how far their creeds are parallel. The ultimate object is said to be the formation of "a looseworking fellowship for ends purely moral and spiritual." The Independent ought to be the organ of the association, since it will include Spiritualists, Come-Outers, Progressive Friends, Progressive Jews, Transcendentalists, Rationalists, Scientists, and all the other free-thinking theorists to whose companionship the Independent has cheerfully surrendered itself.

The quarterly report of the Superintendent of Metropolitan Police shows that there were 24,868 arrests made in New York and Brooklyn during the quarter ending in May, 5,878 of which were females; 10,879 of the number were married, and 13,990 single.

Prospects of the July Session of Congress

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

WASHINGTON, May 28, 1867.

Maximilian.

The Austrian Minister to-day visited the State Department to learn if any additional news had been received concerning the fate of Maximilian. He denied the truth of the recent dispatch from Vienna over the Atlantic Telegraph, to the effect that he had been instructed to open negotiations with the President of the Mexican Republic for the purpose of saving Maximilian's life. He declared that he had not, at any time, received instructions to that effect from the Emperor of Austria. The utmost limit of his advices in this regard has been to solicit the aid of this Government in protecting Maximilian as a prisoner of war. The effort made in that direction is already a matter of public notoriety.

Impeachment.

The Judiciary Committee heard the evidence of the Secretary of the Treasury to-day, relative to appointments of revenue officers in the South, who could not take the test oath, and as to the disposition of the large amount of cotton which has passed through the Treasury Department. Mrs. Ella Washington, an alleged female pardon brokeress, was also examined. She testified to having obtained but three pardons.

Affairs in Tennessee.

General George H. Thomas had another interview with the President to-day, in company with General Grant. General Thomas furnished a good deal of information relative to the condition of affairs in Tennessee, and the complaints made to the President by citizens of that State relative to the distributions of arms by the Government to the militia. General Thomas does not return until to-morrow; and will doubtless go back with full discretion in the matter of preserving the public peace in that State during the exciting political campaign there.

Cabinet Meeting.

The Cabinet had its usual regular meeting to-day with all of the members present, but Attorney General Stanbery. The session was protracted beyond the usual time, although it is not known that anything but the routine business came before it.

National Revenue.

Notwithstanding that a large amount of distilled spirits is being placed in bond, and that the income tax for 1867 has not been paid, the Internal Revenue receipts have largely increased during the present week. Yesterday they were nearly a quarter of a million, and to-day they reached as high as half a million dollars. Returns from the Income tax will commence to come in about the middle of June, when the receipts are expected to exceed one million per day.

Ordnance Investigation.

The Committee on Ordnance meet here to-morrow, and organize. It is stated that one of the subjects which will first elicit inquiry is the propriety of the conversion of the old Springfield muskets into breech loaders.

Personal.

Gen. Joe Johnson, formerly of the rebel army, is among the arrivals in town to-day.

The July Session.

Those Members of Congress who are anxious for a session in July, declare that it is rendered necessary by the opinion of Attorney General Stanberry on the disfranchising clause of the reconstruction act. Those members who aided in framing that law say that the Attorney General has given those portions of the act greater latitude than was ever anticipated. A letter urging a session was addressed to two or three prominent members to-day, but notwithstanding these efforts it is not believed that a session can possibly be secured.

The Privateer Maffitt.

The ex-rebel privateer, J. N. Maffitt, arrived in town to-day, and has applied to the President for pardon.

Resignations.

Assistant Secretary Chandler finally leaves the Treasury on Thursday. The vacancy will be temporarily supplied by Assistant Secretary Hartly.

R. S. Chilton, Commissioner of Immigration, has tendered his resignation.

Visit to the Japanese.

General Grant called upon the Japanese to-day.

THE TURF.

Buckeye Club Races, Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, May 28.—The Buckeye Club races were well attended to-day. The first race, Burnet House Club, two mile heats, for $1,700, for four-year-olds, four horses entered. D. J. Crouse entered Mack Johnson, and Douglas entered Duke of Orleans; Alexander entered Merrill, and Kean Richards entered bay colt by Lexington. The first two heats were won by Merrill; time, 3:59¼ and 4:00½. The second race was mile heats for three-year olds. $50 entrance. McGrath entered Erin; Clay entered Rivoli; Grigsby and West entered Phœnix Belle. Rivoli won in two straight heats; time, 1:55½ and 1:57.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The steamer Sacramento, from Panama, has arrived. The benevolent associations celebrated the anniversary of Queen Victoria's birthday by a banquet. The French, Italian, Spanish, Danish and Austrians participated.

The Sunshine, from Sidney, has arrived. The Cremorne, for Liverpool, with 24,000 sacks of wheat, cleared. Butter dull and prices nominal. Standard brands of candies, 21@23½c. Flour firm at $6 50@7. Wheat dull at $2 12½. Legal Tenders, 74.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—A fire on May 17th in Idaho City destroyed four hundred and forty-two houses, including the postoffice and express office. The loss is estimated at a million. A greater space was laid waste than by the fire in May, 1865.

Capt. Julius Kinchloe, of the Coast Survey, and five men were drowned May 20th, by the capsizing of a boat while making the final survey of Kilarnook Bay, Oregon.

The steamship Active, from Victoria, has arrived with $386,000 in treasure. The news from British Columbia is unimportant.

Arrived, White Swallow, New York; John Day, Sidney; Anglo-Saxon, Gen. Cobb, westward to Newcastle; Gem of the Ocean, Hong Kong. Sailed, Flying Eagle, New York; Cremorne, Liverpool.

Fire in Memphis.

MEMPHIS, TENN., May 28.—A fire this morning in the dry goods house of Greenwald & Loeb, corner of Main and Adams streets, communicated to the dry goods houses of M. Kraus & Co., Taylor & Co., Taylor, McEwins & Blew, and the photographic gallery of B. Bingham. Greenwald & Loeb's loss by fire and water, is $100,000; insured for $65,000 in New York offices. Krous's loss is $20,000, well insured in New York. Bingham's loss is $7,000, no insurance. Other losses light. The fire was the work of an incendiary. Greenwald and three clerks barely escaped, being asleep in the third story. A heavy rain falling at the time, and the exertions of the firemen, alone saved an immense amount of property.

Fall of a Building in Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, May 28.—The front and side walls of a brick building, at 103 Market street, occupied as a clothing store and daguerrean gallery, fell in at 12 o'clock, burying three men who were sitting at dinner near the side wall. One was gotten out slightly injured, but the other two were drawn out quite insensible and very badly bruised. One had his leg amputated.

LOUISVILLE, May 28.—This evening the body of a man, killed by the falling of the walls on Market street, was found buried in the rubbish and taken out.

THE question as to the liability of Jefferson Davis to be tried for treason excites considerable interest. It is said that Attorney General Stanbery holds that Chief Justice Chase's decision recognizing the rebels as belligerents of war, in order to legalize the sale of the captured blockade runners, precludes a trial for treason, as belligerents cannot be tried for that offense. It is said that this doubt on the subject is the real cause of the delay in bringing Davis to trial.

General Griffin, commanding in Texas, has found it necessary to issue an order declaring that the usual taxes must be paid, the people generally thinking they were relieved under the military bill.

MEXICO.

FURTHER DETAILS OF NEWS.

Public Opinion Demands the Death of Maximilian.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The steamer Sierra Nevada, from Mazatlan, has arrived, with $166,000 in treasure.

A letter from Mazatlan says: Nearly all the Americans are leaving Mazatlan and Presida. The cotton crop has been a failure for three years past. The State is threatened with invasion of the port. Placida, Vega and Lasado, of Tipo, are raising an army, daily expecting news of the invasion of Sinaloa. The new manifest of the chiefs was published. We are unable to know whether Vega will raise a standard of his own or lend aid to one of the great contending parties. It appears it is a private affair of Vega's, who has probably promised Lasado part of the plunder.

The advices from the Liberal headquarters are to May 1st. The Imperialists held the city with a force of ten thousand regulars and nine thousand recruits. The Liberals do not expect to capture the city by force of arms, but to reduce it by starvation. If Maximilian is captured he will certainly be shot. President Juarez dare not save him. Public sentiment has unmistakably decreed his death. The Imperialists occupy the City of New Mexico with 6,000 regulars and a considerable force of conscripts, under Saverra. The beseigers number 18,000, under Diaz. The Liberals are confident of the capture at an early day.

THE RELEASE OF JEFF. DAVIS.

What the English Press Says.

[From the London Times of May 15.]

The Americans, when they interceded with our Government for the lives of the Fenians convicted in Canada, did certainly not preach where they were unprepared to practise. Since the conclusion of the war the North, though severe on the Southern community, has given way to no animosities against individuals. No one has been put to death in America for what the North has declared to be treason; very few have been molested if they chose to acquiesce in the restored rule and to take no part in politics. The clemency of the Government has, however, been carried to its furthest point by the release on bail of Mr. Jefferson Davis, after a captivity of two years. Whether he will ever be brought to trial seems to be still uncertain, but we may almost predict that in any case the punishment on him will not be extreme. We can see that in the case of America this is the wisest policy, and that it is best not to give renewed rancor to the animosities of the South by any act of severity. A similar forbearance would have its good effects in Ireland also.

[From the London Telegraph, May 15.]

At last the ex-President of the late Confederate States of America has been released from his captivity. Jefferson Davis is no longer a prisoner in Fortress Monroe. The telegram which conveys this announcement explains that the release is on bail, and that Mr. Davis is under bonds to appear before the Court in November next; but it is evident that the intention to bring him to trial has been abandoned. Indeed, his imprisonment has been for more than a year past considered a reproach to public justice, and the most eminent of the late Republican leaders have not scrupled to denounce the prolonged confinement without trial as a disgrace to the country. The case, however, was one with which no Government would have found it easy to deal. At the time when the assassination of Mr. Lincoln had thrown the whole country into a frenzy of passionate desire for vengeance, and when Davis was supposed to have instigated the crime, the Government might easily have obtained a verdict against him at the close of the war. Fortunate for the good name of the American people that difficulties hindered such a proceeding till the passions of the people had time to cool.

[From the London Star, May 14.]

No more remarkable proof could be afforded of the clemency of the Americans towards political offenders. At one time public feeling was strong against Davis; now it has cooled down into indifference, if not contempt.

A Kansas City dispatch of Monday says: Twenty-five citizens of this place started in pursuit of the Richmond bank robbers yesterday. As part of them approached the house of a man named Deaver, two miles and a half west of Independence, one of the party, B. H. Wilson, formerly of New Albany, Indiana, was shot, and instantly killed by Payne Jones, a notorious bushwhacker, who escaped. It is thought that most of the gang engaged in the robbery, are protected by bullet proof garments, as many shots were fired at them by citizens at close quarters without effect.

"Wild Bill" as an Indian Slayer.

The correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat, who attended General Hancock on his Indian expedition, tells the following recent adventure of "Wild Bill," who was lately described in Harper's Monthly:

"'Wild Bill,' who is an inveterate hater of the Indians, was also chased by six Indians lately, and had quite a little adventure with them. Taught by long practice with Indians to be always on his guard, he never walks out of the house without a brace of fine revolvers swung to his waist, but on an important errand he goes armed to the teeth, and woe to the Indians who cross his path. Riding about in the late field of operations, he was seen by a group of the red men, who immediately gave chase. Too soon they found whom they were pursuing, and then commenced to retrace their steps, but not before two of them fell dead before the weapons of 'Wild Bill.' A horse was also killed and one wounded, after which 'Wild Bill' rode unconcernedly on his way to camp, and in a very modest manner related the little adventure, which report was verified by a scout named Kincaid, who shot an Indian on his way with dispatches for General Custer."

JUDGE KELLEY, of Philadelphia, spoke in Salisbury, North Carolina, on Monday, and in the course of his remarks said he had been asked whether the Sherman bill was a final measure. To this he would answer, that the South itself should decide that. As to confiscation, of which they seemed to be afraid, he protested that, no matter for all that Mr. Stevens said in his speech, there was not a Republican in Congress who honestly wanted a confiscation bill passed. But if the military bill was rejected, as the Constitutional Amendment was, he would not say that a restricted franchise might not follow, or that Congress might go no further than to take from the men of large wealth, who oppressed the masses, a portion of their vast estates. In conclusion he asked them to believe that this was the language he would have spoken in Mobile, had the people listened to him, and to assure them that all they read in the papers about using exasperating or offensive words were merely creations of the imagination. Judging from the cordial reception which the Judge met with at its conclusion, and openly expressed accordance with his views, it would appear that he made some converts among the ex-Confederates and all doubtful believers in the military bill.

GENERAL LICENSE LAWS.

Act Defining Duties of Police Officers---Supplemental Act Relative to Licenses.

A synopsis of the general law, defining the duties of police officers to enforce order in licensed houses, and to exterminate the unlicensed traffic, has already been published, but as there appears to be no observance of the law by those officers, we this morning give the act in full, in order that the community may know how remiss policemen are in their duty. The subjoined act applies with equal force to Allegheny county as to any other county in the State, and every friend of good order should endeavor to have it enforced:

An act to enable police officers to enforce order in licensed houses, and to exterminate the unlicensed traffic.

PREVENTION OF DISORDERLY CONDUCT IN LICENSED HOUSES.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That persons licensed to keep taverns or eating houses, shall, as far as in them lie, prevent all disorderly conduct in and about their premises, and in case of any disturbance of the peace, shall immediately give notice to the nearest sheriff, constable, officer, or member of police, of such disturbance, and call upon said officer to interpose; whereupon it shall be the duty of such officer to remove the disorderly persons, and, if need be, to close up the place, and keep it closed until order and quiet are entirely restored.

SELLING OR GIVING LIQUOR TO MINORS.

SECTION 2. No person shall sell, give away, or dispose of any strong, or spirituous liquors, wines, ale, beer, or any intoxicating drinks, to any apprentice, or any person under twenty-one years of age, without consent given, in writing, in the case of any apprentice, of his master, or mistress, in case of any other minor, of his father, mother, or guardian.

SELLING AGAINST REQUEST OF PARENT, WIFE OR CHILD.

SECTION 4. No person thus licensed shall, against the request of any wife, husband, parent, or child, sell, give away, or dispose of, any strong or spirituous liquors, wines, ales, or beer, to the husband of any such wife, the wife of any such husband, parent of any such child, or child of any such parent, under penalty of all the fines and forfeitures of this act.

HOURS OF CLOSING AND OPENING TAVERNS.

SECTION 5. All persons thus licensed, shall close, or shut up, their bar, or place of sale, at, or before, the hour of twelve every night, and not open the same until sunrise next day, and on Sundays shall not open them at all, but keep them shut until Monday at sunrise; this is not designed to prevent the reception and lodging of persons traveling, without violation of law.

PENALTY OF VIOLATION.

SECTION 6. Any conviction, for the violation of any provision of this act, by a person licensed under it, or at any place licensed, shall work a forfeiture and annul such license, and no license fee shall be returned.

SHERIFFS AND POLICEMEN TO COMPEL OBSERVANCE OF THE ACT.

SECTION 7. It shall be the duty of every sheriff, constable, policeman, and officer of police to compel the observance and to prevent the violation of the provisions of this act; and in the discharge of such duty, if need be, he shall have power to close up, and keep closed, any place, or places, where such violations become known to him, whether by his own personal observation, or by information of any respectable citizen of the vicinity; also it shall be the duty of the officers aforesaid to arrest such persons, so alleged to be acting in violation of law, and to bring them before any magistrate of the vicinity, to be dealt with according to the provisions of this act, and it shall be the duty of such magistrate to entertain complaints for the violation of this act, when made under oath, by any citizen of the vicinity.

ARREST OF INTOXICATED PERSONS.

SECTION 8. It shall be the duty of every sheriff, constable, member and officer of police, to arrest any and every person, who shall be found intoxicated in any street, or public highway, or in any public place or places where strong, or spirituous liquors, wines, ale or beer, are sold, publicly kept, or disposed of, and to take him, or her, before any magistrate of the vicinity; and if such magistrate shall, after due inquiry, deem him, or her, too intoxicated to be fully examined, or to answer, on oath, correctly the magistrate shall cause him, or her, to be confined until he or she become sober, and then to be brought before him, and interrogated, under oath, or affirmation, as to the cause of such intoxication, and thus ascertain from whom he or she obtained the liquor which caused the drunkenness; but such examination shall not be used in evidence against such intoxicated person, in any prosecution, civil or criminal.

Approved April 17th, 1867.

Supplement Relative to Licenses.

In addition to the above act, the Legislature also passed "a further supplement to an act to regulate the granting of licenses to hotels and eating-houses, approved March 31, 1856." The first section of this new law does not apply to Philadelphia or the county of Allegheny. The remainder of it is as follows:

SECTION 2. Applications for license to keep an eating-house, beer-house or restaurant, authorizing the sale of domestic wines, malt, and brewed liquors, shall hereafter be made in the same manner, and to the same authority, as application for license to keep a hotel: Provided, that the regulation in relation to bar-rooms and beds shall not apply to applicants for an eating-house, beer-house, and restaurant license; and the tenth section of the act of 20th April, 1858, authorizing county treasurers to grant an eating house or retail-brewery license is hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. No license to keep an eating-house, beer-house, or restaurant, under the provisions of the second section of this act, shall be granted in any incorporpted city for a less sum than fifty dollars, nor elsewhere for a less sum than twenty dollars.

SEC. 4. If any person, after the passage of this act, shall sell spirituous or vinous liquors, domestic wines, malt or brewed liquors, without having obtained a license authorizing him to do so, such person shall, on conviction in the Court of Quarter Sessions, be fined, for the first offense, in any sum not less than fifty or more than two hundred dollars, and for the second, or any subsequent offense, such person shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars, and, in the discretion of the said Court, be imprisoned in the county jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety says: Provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to repeal the provisions of the act of Assembly passed March 31, 1856, relating to sales by druggists and apothecaries.

New York Money Market.

From the Commercial Advertiser (Money Article) Monday Evening.

The balance in the Sub-Treasury has increased from $110,000,000 on the 2d of May to $132,000,000 on Saturday last, showing an increase of $22,000,000 within about three weeks. At the same time, the Sub-Treasury has paid out fully $17,000,000 of gold upon May coupons, making the increase in its currency balance close upon forty millions.

The wonder is not that, after such an enormous withdrawal of circulation, we should have a six per cent. money market, but rather that we have not experienced a most embarrassing stringency. The facts show the extreme ease which must have prevailed had affairs taken their ordinary course.

The bank statement reflects the effects of this movement. The deposits have been drawn down 5¼ millions ($1,334,000 being due to withdrawals of specie,) while the Legal Tenders show a decline of $1,880,000; the difference between the decrease in deposits and Legal Tenders indicates that payments into the Treasury have been made freely in bank currency.

The loans show a decrease of nearly two millions, which would probably have been larger but for the purchases of Governments by the banks, bonds being counted in the loans.

JUDGE CHASE has been obliged to upset some of the contemptible Judge Underwood's proceedings. The case of Joseph Blair, of Alexandria, Va., whose property was confiscated and sold by the order of Judge Underwood, and bought in by Underwood and his friends, has been brought before the Supreme Court, and Judge Chase granted a writ of error for its revision for these reasons: Because the absolute title of the property was sold, contrary to law, because the property was confiscated for treason before Mr. Blair had been convicted of that crime, and because the proceedings were in admiralty when they should have been at common law.

THE BAPTIST ANNIVERSARIES.

Meeting of American Baptist Missionary Union.

Interesting Annual Reports.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial.

CHICAGO, May 28, 1867.

The American Baptist Missionary Union opened this forenoon in the First Baptist Church. Notwithstanding the dismal weather there was a large attendance. Hon. Ira Harris, of New York, President of the Union, delivered an address, in which he congratulated the Union on the prosperous condition of the organization, and sketched its rise and progress since its establishment fifty-three years ago, to the present time.

At the close of the President's address, the Committee of Arrangements, Committee of Enrolment and Committee on Nomination of Officers, were appointed by the Chair.

The next business in order was the reading of the Treasurer's report by Mr. F. A. Smith, of Boston, Treasurer of the Union. The entire receipts during the year amount to $191,714 00, viz: From donations, $142,661 36; legacies, $13,991 01; contingent fund, $13,736 56; miscellaneous, $19,449 32; balance April 1, 1866, $1,869 75. FROM CHINA.

New Lighthouses---Villages Burned by the Rebels----Heavy Storm at Hong Kong, &c., &c.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—By the Gem of the Ocean we have Hong Kong dates to April 5th. The French Consul General at Shanghai had issued a circular letter to the French merchants and the Chamber of Commerce, inviting them to take steps for the expression of their views of the change necessary in the approaching revision of the treaty in 1868. The lighting apparatus for the lighthouse at Cheefoo has arrived. It is expected the building will be completed by June first. It is reported the Chinese authorities have expressed their willingness to erect a lighthouse on Shantang promontory.

Several villages were burned by the rebels on the banks of the Yangtz, near Grosvenor island. The natives are flying from the neighborhood in large numbers.

The United States steamer Monarch sailed from Hong Kong for Borneo and Philpis, for the purpose of advocating the opening of a coal port in the north of that country. The inducements suggested to influence the Chinese Government are the payment of a royalty on coal taken by foreign vessels from the mines of Fucshu.

The Cochin China has the following: After the dispersion of the rebels in front of Oud Dong and Ancei, the greater number of our troops and the French were withdrawn from Cambodia and Taynates. It is believed the rebel chief has withdrawn to a more obscure part in the northeast, beyond capture.

There yet remain on the frontiers of Aumate and Cambodia, considerable bands of malefactors. The authorities of Chaador arrested one of the ancient chiefs of Thassmer, and delivered him on demand of the Frnech authorities.

A heavy storm occurred at Hong Kong March 24. The water undermined several buildings, portions of which fell down. No one was injured. Augustine, Heard & Co. had to remove to other premises, their buildings were so injured.

From Lower California.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—A Lopez, Lower California, letter says Gaston Dartois had a trial and was sentenced to death. The evidence was sent to Mazatlan for judgment of the superior tribunal. It appears the expedition was on his own account. He had no authority from Navarette to invade Lower California in his name.

The agents of the Lower California Colonization Society have left the country. Leese has gone to Mexico to see Juarez, and others to New York. The authorities have declined to recognize the grant. The mines of the Tri-unudo and Mexican company are being successfully worked.

Tahiti advices to May 5th report the loss of the missionary bark John Williams, on Savage Island, January 8th; also, the total loss of the ship Christopher Hall, upon Navigator's Island.

XENIA, OHIO.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Proposed Reorganization of Home Mission Board.

The Appeal in the McCune Case.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial.

XENIA, OHIO, May 28, 1867.

In the United Presbyterian General Assembly last night, a discussion took place on the reorganization of the Board of Home Missions, which was not concluded, but enough transpired to show that no radical change will be made in the Board this year.

The whole question concerning the right of Synods to vote in cases of appeal in which they are parties, was laid on the table. The Moderator decided that members of Synods cannot vote in such cases. Dr. Davidson appealed, and the Moderator was sustained.

Dr. Davidson and others asked leave to enter their dissent from this discussion.

The Assembly took up the appeal of Adam Green from the decision of the Synod of Illinois, and the report of the Judicial Committee, ruling out the appeal as irregular, was adopted. The Assembly then took up the report of Dr. Wilson on the McCune case. This report decides the appeal to be irregular, the reasons of appeal not having been given to the officers of the Synod in the prescribed time.

The delegates from the New School Presbyterian and Reformed Dutch Church were received and addressed the Assembly in the morning. The Irish delegation, Rev. Drs. Denham and Hall, addressed the Assembly at length in the afternoon, and were responded to by the Moderator. J. R. M.

A man named Aylevard, suspected of giving information against the Fenians, was fired at in Dublin and slightly wounded. No arrests.

The proceedings and probable effect of the conference on the Luxumburg question continued to be widely discussed.

The London Globe asserts that the British Government was urging upon the Continental powers the expediency of a general disarmament.

Nearly all the Paris papers speak favorably of the treaty. The Patrie declares it the most glorious triumph of French policy obtained for fifty years. The Temps, however, will not be perfectly satisfied, unless the treaty is followed by a general disarmament.

The Gazette de France thinks Prussia had only one object, to obtain from Europe sanction to the situation she established in Germany, and is of the opinion that the Berlin Cabinet perfectly succeeded in attaining its end.

A telegram from Berlin says everybody is glad the peace of Europe is not to be broken up by such a very small apple as the right of occupying the fortress of Luxemburg. A semi-official Berlin paper says now the retention of Luxemburg by the house of Orange is secure, the chief cause of anxiety to Germany has disappeared. In Paris there are rumors of the Congress being revived, and it is talked of that Napoleon relies on the presence of the Emperor of Russia to bring about an understanding on the subject between the Sovereigns who are to assemble in the French capital. These rumors probably have something to do with the assertion that the British Government is urging the expediency of a general disarmament.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg announces the betrothal of the King of Greece with the Grand Duchess Constantina.

At a meeting of the Local Marine Board of Liverpool, a fine gold chronometer was presented, on behalf of the President of the United States, to Captain Hughes, of the British ship Queen Victoria, for having rescued thirty one persons from the American ship Acquila, when in a sinking condition.

Advices from Montevideo state that the allies had decided not to treat except on a basis of secret triple alliance. The American Minister at Assumpcion protested against this claim of the allies, which had also produced a very bad impression upon the population of the La Platte States, who urgently demand the conclusion of peace.

The cholera has broken out in Buenos Ayres, and at all towns on the coast as far as Carrientes.

Closing Proceedings of the Presbyterian General Assembly.

Last evening was the occasion of the farewell services of the Assembly. The exercises were of great interest, and the Church was filled to its utmost. A letter was read from Rev. Thomas Guthrie, of the Free Church of Scotland, after which short addresses were made by the Moderator, Dr. Nelson, Rev. Herrick Johnson, of Pittsburgh, and Drs. Shaw and Campbell, of this city.

The heaviest storm of the season passed over the city last night. The thunder and lightning was very severe, and rain fell in torrents for several hours. Heavy rain has been falling throughout the West for several days past, and the weather has been very cold.

From Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—Honolulu advices are to May 3d. The whaling bark Daniel Wood, from New Bedford, was wrecked on French Frigate Shoals, April 14th. Captain Richmond and a portion of the crew arrived at Honolulu after a passage of four hundred and fifty miles in an open whale boat. The United States steamer Lackawana immediately sailed for the scene of the wreck, to rescue the remainder of the crew, seventeen in number, unavoidably left.

The Syren cleared for New Bedford, with a cargo valued at $340,000. The Eastfield arrived at Honolulu from Manilla, her cargo including 169 coolies.

The Impeachment Investigation.

Col. A. K. Long, in his testimony before the Judiciary Committee, on Monday, testified that the notorious Mrs. Cobb was interested in obtaining in all three pardons; that in these she was unknown to the President, whom she did not meet. The petitions were prepared in regular form by others, and Mrs. Cobb assisted in obtaining the parties through third parties. Colonel Long was also examined about the interview beteen Mr. Johnson and detective Baker, of which the latter has published an account. The testimony shows that there were three persons present when the President ordered Baker out of the White House, and they give a very different account from that of Mr. Baker of what transpired. Mr. Long says that Mr. Johnson learning that Baker had placed detectives in the White House, sent for him immediately. Upon the latter coming into the President's office, Mr. Jounson said, "Who authorized you to place detectives in this house?" Baker replied he did it by order of Secretary Stanton. Mr. Johnson then said, "Remove your detectives and never let me see them or yourself here again. When I require your services I'll send for you," and as Mr. Baker retired, Mr. Johnson added, "Now go to Mr. Stanton and tell him that when I want you I will send for you." Mr. Johnson during this time never moved from his position at his table, and Baker's story about the President's violent manner and shaking his fist under the detective's nose, is declared false.

County Treasurer.

A faithful and gallant soldier sends us a communication in behalf of an equally gallant soldier, which we subjoin, omitting only those portions which have already been referred to in these columns.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

Where a returned soldier is brought forward for an office of trust and responsibility, whose record in the service is untarnished and his competency unquestioned, it is no more than a deserved honor that such men should be preferred over those who have been privileged to remain at home during our struggle for a national existence—no matter what their claims may be upon the party to which they belong. We erect monuments to the patriot dead who have sacrificed their lives in defense of the government, and such evidences of the nation's gratitude are but a fitting tribute to their memory; but we owe a duty as well to the disabled heroes of the war who are still with us, and, now that the government no longer require their services, are left at a disadvantage to compete with the robust and vigorous for wealth and honor; or it may be for the means of living.

The Republican Union County Convention will meet in this city in a few days, to nominate men for the several county offices, and prominent among the offices to be filled, is that of County Treasurer. The names of a number of gentlemen have been announced as candidates for the nomination, all doubtless worthy men. It is not my purpose to speak disparagingly of any, but to invite the attention of the citizens of the county, and especially those delegated by the people to select the candidates of the party, to the claims of Major J. F. Denniston, late C. S., U. S. Vols., announced as a candidate for the office referred to.

As one who has served with Major Denniston, and had ample opportunities to be informed in regard to his services and standing in the army, it affords me pleasure to say in regard to his qualifications and claims for the office, that his record in the army is without a stain; his gallantry in action was excelled by none, and his efficiency and integrity in the discharge of the duties assigned to him while in the service won for him the esteem and confidence of all who knew him.

There being no question as to the competency of Major Denniston for the office which he seeks, and in view of the fact that he is in a manner physically incapable for active business pursuits, his claim is one which, the writer thinks, should be recognized by the people of Allegheny county, and his nomination and election as Treasurer of the county would be but a just and fitting acknowledgement of the services of one of her most gallant sons.

GARIBALDI IN A NEW ATTITUDE.—It is stated that, in a letter which he lately addressed to the English Minister at Florence, Garibaldi formally sets forth his title to the Governorship of Rome, to which office he states himself to have been elected by the Roman people in 1848–9, and from which high estate he denies that he has ever been legally deposed. In the eyes of Garibaldi, the Pope is a mere usurper, and his position as a temporal sovereign logically untenable.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A little girl by the name of Etta Williams, aged about eleven years, made a narrow escape from drowning, on Monday evening. She was playing on some rafts moored below the Suspension Bridge over the Allegheny river, when she accidently fell into the water. Several men who were engaged in removing the lumber, rushed to her assistance and succeeded in rescuing her from her perilous situation.

DEATH OF BISHOP SIMPSON'S MOTHER.—The numerous friends of Bishop Simpson will learn with sorrow of the death of his venerable mother, Mrs. Sarah Simpson, which occurred suddenly on the morning of the 27th instant, at his residence in Philadelphia. The blocks and boards were placed on Wayne street yesterday morning, and the work of removing the boulders was commenced.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—A severe accident occurred on Monday, to a man named Wm. Black, employed at the establishment of Messrs. McAboy & Co. He was working at a circular saw, when by some means his left hand was caught in the machinery, and three fingers taken off. The fore-finger of his left hand was broken in two places. The physician in attendance is of the opinion that it can be saved. Black is a married man, and was conveyed to his home immediately after the accident. He will be incapacitated for labor for months, and will perhaps never have the use of his hand again.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.—Before Judge Sterrett.

The case of Catharine Negley vs. Wm. McCully, J. B. Lyon and Wm. Maorum, previously reported, occupied the attention of the Court yesterday and had not been concluded at adjournment.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge Hampton.

In the case of Robert McClinton vs. Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company, and James Gilliland vs. same defendants, the jury returned a verdict in favor of plaintiffs for the sum of $850, subject to the decision of the Court on questions of law reserved.

Pittsburgh Paper Manufacturing Company vs. J. Heron Foster & Co. Action to recover $1,529 57, balance claimed to be due on account of printing paper sold and delivered to defendants. The defendants alleged that they entered into a contract with plaintiffs to supply them with all the paper required for printing the editions of the Dispatch, of as good a quality and at as low a price as any other newspaper establishment in the city. It was claimed that the amounts charged in plaintiffs' account (as filed in the case,) were unjust and excessive, and that the paper furnished was of an inferior quality, and different from that which the plaintiffs had contracted to deliver. The defense proved by their clerk, the contract with plaintiffs to furnish as good paper and at as low a price as to any other newspaper establishment in the city. The fact was also testified to that the COMMERCIAL establishment was being furnished by defendants, under contract, with paper five cents per pound cheaper than they were supplying the Dispatch. The plaintiff offered evidence that this understanding of the agreement was that they were to furnish paper at the market price, without any special terms or conditions, or reference to the contract with the COMMERCIAL, with which paper they had no contract until December, 1865, although supplied previously, as also had been the Dispatch. The case is still on trial.

Corn Shelling at the Pittsburgh Elevator.

The Pittsburgh Grain Elevator Company have put up, in their mammoth building on Liberty street, a huge corn sheller, and it is well worth a visit to see the manner in which it swallows up the "cereal" product. We know of nothing that illustrates to better advantage the superiority of machinery to the hand labor of olden times than this Champion Sheller, as it is called. Those who have been brought up in the rural districts will remember the old "rubbing and scrubbing" process, by which, with hard and persistent labor, an able bodied man might shell a few bushels per day; but this machine will shell and clean ready for shipment from 3,000 to 5,000 bushels of corn in the same time. This sheller has been in used for some years in the large corn growing regions of the West, but we are indebted to the enterprise of the Elevator Company for its introduction into this city. It has already proved a great convenience to our grain merchants in this city, in placing their corn in good merchantable order for sale here, or for shipment East, and has attracted thousands of bushels to this place that would otherwise have gone to other points. Very large amounts have been brought from all along the Ohio river and from Central Ohio, and that second Egypt, the Muskingum Valley. The sheller has been kept running nearly all the time, night and day for some weeks past, and nearly all the corn shelled by it has gone directly East for export to Europe. The machine is run at a very nominal or trifling cost to the Company, as the cobs are more than sufficient fuel to keep the engine running which is used for the work of the whole building. The Elevator Company design setting up another sheller, of still larger capacity, when they will be able to take care of all the car corn offering from all directions. Farmers and others having a spare moment would be interested in a visit to the Elevator.

Prothonotary.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

A communication, signed Jacob H. Walter, appeared in the morning papers of the 22d inst., to which I reply. I do so to correct the statements therein made, that I, or my friends, have acted unfairly, or been guilty of falsehood as charged in the canvass between me and my late employer is untrue. He asserts, among other things, that we claim that "a private arrangement, bargain and sale," was made in the convention of 1864, by which I transferred my delegates to him, in consideration that he would not be a candidate for re-nomination in the coming convention, &c. I am not aware of any such "bargain and sale" being made, and certainly I would be as unwilling to put myself and friends in a false position as Mr. Walter. But this I do say, and it can be verified by men of character, whose words have not heretofore been doubted, long before that convention met, I was advised to reserve my effort to gain the nomination for the present time, and a majority of my friends turned over to Mr. Walter, at the same time saying they would support me, as they are doing, as lively at this time. Mr. Walter then, and after that time, voluntarily promised to do all in his power to aid me in getting the nomination, and his words are well remembered by many whose names he can have. For the truth of this I refer to Wm. B. Negley, John Barton, and Alex. M. Watson, Esqs. My offence consists in a desire to reap the profits, for one term, of the office in which I have spent the better part of my life-time as a clerk. I refer to the Bench and the Bar for my qualifications. "The head and front of my offending hath this extent—no more!" The gentleman overshot the mark in that unfortunate card. But, aside from his pledges, I submit my case on merit, and I appeal to my friends. I will not imitate his example, and allow passion to run ahead of reason. I entertain none but kind feelings toward all, and promise that I will, if nominated, do my best to render satisfaction. I will be thankful for the favor, and ask it but once. D. C. The Daily Commercial

WEDNESDAY, MAY 29, 1867.

THE quantity of coal sent from Pittsburgh to Southern ports, in the present month, is six millions six hundred and fifty-six thousand bushels. To do this business five hundred and seventy-six boats and barges were required. This is the largest shipment ever made in one month. The details will be found in another part of the paper.

THE New York city Democracy have lost, probably forever, the opportunity of paying their respects personally to the exploded Confeder cy, as represented by its self-ostracised chief. He has slunk away from the sight of the flag that he attempted in vain to displace. He will never afford them a chance to bow before him again, unless he should, like the indestructible SANTA ANNA, be, as it were, exhaled by some congenial internal revolution in the country.

SURRATT'S first plunge, for a hiding place, was a Roman Catholic monastery in Canada, but as his was an offense that could not be shielded from the operation of the extradition treaty, he had to go further off, into a deeper seclusion. DAVIS'S crime is political, expressly excepted in the treaty referred to. He has got off far enough, and there he will be apt to stay; and, perhaps, like BENEDICT ARNOLD, his great predecessor, become possessed of the rights of a British subject, and live dispised by all honorable men.

GOVERNOR JENKINS, of Georgia, has issued an address to the people of that State, principally devoted to the destitute condition of many of their citizens, and the prospect before them. He deplores the planting of so much cotton, when bread is the central idea and pressing necessity. "There would," says he "be hope for the State, if thousands of acres of cotton were now ploughed up, and the ground devoted to corn. There is yet time for it. The present cry for bread among substantial farmers admonishes all to do this."

IT is the law that liquor shall not be sold to an intoxicated person, an habitual drunkard, to a minor or apprentice (without proper consent), and yet this law, in scores of places in Pittsburgh, is openly violated and defied, every hour in every day. If the friends of good order and sobriety will take measures to have what laws there are even half enforced, the necessity for others would rapidly disappear, and more would be accomplished than can be done by a thousand years of talking to crowded audiences usually composed of those who, in the main, need no talking. Let the laws we print this morning be enforced, and community will feel the effect almost instantly.

THE Editor of the Tribune, having shown that it was the duty of the Government, after having kept JEFFERSON DAVIS two years in confinement and not being ready to try, was bound to release him, is now arguing that a Government which, after a long and arduous struggle, has put down an organized and formidable rebellion, cannot proceed to try and punish its defeated adversaries as traitors. In other words, the Editor of the Tribune holds that JEFFERSON DAVIS cannot be tried for treason—that if he was ever guilty of the crime, the time when he can be tried for it has passed. Fortunately Mr. GREELEY is not the Chief Justice, and the Tribune not the highest court in the land. But should the Chief Justice and the Supreme Court affirm the correctness of this doctrine, it would not be ratified by the great tribunal of Public Opinion, which, sooner or later—kept alive and strengthened, as in this case it would be, by the recollection of unnumbered barbarities—would write another law in the Constitution and judicial decisions. Mr. GREELEY, at the outset of the rebellion, admitted, if he did not defend, the right of secession. That was not one whit more repugnant to the loyal sentiment than his present doctrine as to the punishment of traitors. The law of a hundred battle fields has denied the right of secession, and no court will dare to question the decision; and among the precedents and interpretations that have gone down, and been buried out of sight forever by the great struggle, is the interpretation by Mr. GREELEY, that Mr. DAVIS cannot be tried and punished for treason.

SCHUYLKILL COUNTY COURTS.

Since the Supreme Court has decided the act unconstitutional which created the extra court and police district where experience proved the usual courts unequal to the task of preserving order, or even of protecting life and property, it becomes a grave question how these difficulties are to be met. If a combination becomes strong enough in any county to prevent the administration of justice by the established forms of law, the law abiding citizens should have some final resort. Our constitutions, being human compositions, did not foresee and provide for every contingency, in populations of rapid growth, and are often found defective. When, through any defect, they are made bulwarks behind which assassination, treason and robbery find shelter, they defeat the very end for which they were created, and it becomes as much the dictate of common sense that they should be replaced, as that the outgrown garment of a child should give place to a larger. Pennsylvania, in some respects, has outgrown her Constitution. If the peaceable citizens of Schuylkill county fail to find protection under her courts, as now established, and the Constitution forbids the establishment of others, the remedy is a constitution which will not deny that protection.

The Schuylkill county difficulty bears intimate relations to a rapidly growing evil. The combinations now existing, and increasing, for the express purpose of denying and resisting the right of the individual to control his own person and property, subject to no earthly power but that of the Government of which he is part, have, in this case, gained a strength which enables them to defy that Government, to go into open rebellion and set up Association rights as against those guaranteed by Government. In principle, the Schuylkill combination was a rebellion—the State rights doctrine on a small scale. Precisely the same principles are involved when any Association, by whatever name known, undertakes to set up a Government against the State authority, that was at the bottom of the rebellion. As the great barrier in the way of putting down that rebellion was the Constitution, which it was organized to break down, so the great barrier against defeating these lawless organizations, is, it appears, to be found in the Constitution they are designed to defy. When an independent organization can, by physical force, prevent a man's disposing of his own time and labor, to suit his own personal convenience and interests, it can, on the same principle, defy the Constitutional authorities in any and every other function. No function of Government is more important than that which guarantees a man's right to dispose of his own labor, and the murders, robberies, and terrorism of the Schuylkill County Association are the legitimate results of these governments within Government, just as much as Indian massacres are the result of having independent Nations in our midst.

Breadstuffs from the Pacific.

The California steamer, which arrived at New York Sunday night, brought nearly 1,000 tons of breadstuffs on freight. Private advices from San Francisco state that there are now a dozen ships on the berth there, loading flour for New York and other Eastern ports; in addition to which, Coleman & Co., in their circular, per Ocean Queen, state that a single party has concluded a contract for conveying 5,000 barrels of flour to New York by every Panama steamer, leaving three times a month, and extending into October. The order is for extra flour, the present price of which at San Francisco is $7 00@7 50 per 196 pounds, delivered on board steamer. As the same brands are selling in New York at $12 90@13 80, there is a wide margin for profit, even after freight charges, insurance and other incidental expenses are paid.

IT is a reflection upon the age to assert that chivalry is an extinct institution. Chivalry lives. It is not two weeks, we believe, since a tournament was—if we may use the profane phrase—"on exhibition" in Memphis, with all the apparatus of Knights, Esquires, Queens of Love and Beauty, the prancing of steeds, the shaking of spears, and illimitable display of pasteboard armor and tinsel adornments. Nor, we think, is it more than two months since an equally unequivocal illustration of chivalry was made in Virginia—one that showed at once the tenderness and the grit of the knights of the olden time, better than the Memphis case. Two gentlemen of color—knights of ebony skin—settled a love claim held by both to a fair lady of their race, by the aid of double barreled guns, at thirty paces. One of the combatants healed the wound in his honor at the expense of one in his elbow, and the wound in his affections being cured by the smiles of his contested lady-love, he had nothing to do in the issue but to heal the scratch in his hide. Let it not be said, therefore, that the age of chivalry has passed away, nor, that good specimens of knights errant, of all colors, may not be found in the South.

Is there no way by which the murder of our prisoners of war is to be avenged? Is nothing to be done that shall secure to our rank and file the treatment of civilized warfare in any future war? Is the record of the rebellion to stand before the world, as evidence that the Republic of America cannot, or will not, defend her defenders? England suffocated our prisoners of war in prison ships, the Confederacy starved and froze and tortured and shot them down. Why may not any future enemy do likewise? Government has totally and signally failed to protect or avenge the brave men who perilled all for her protection. It is not officers high in place who are likely to suffer by establishing the rule, in the face of the world, that an American soldier may, with impunity, be starved, turned out, houseless, naked and hungry, into the winter storm, or shot down, while a prisoner of war. The consequences of such rule fall upon the people. Can this same people, by any possibility, elect men to represent them who will secure to them the respect of the world and the rights of civilized warfare? Is this Government theirs, and can they control it?

PITTSBURGH manufactures have had a regular, natural, spontaneous growth. Such might have been expected both from the natural advantages of the place, and from the character of the people. There was no need of forced, speculative work, and there was no disposition for it. Individual enterprise has established and extended the numerous and present kinds of manufactures to their various flourishing condition. The city, the State, nor the United States has not done much to help or facilitate the work. We can easily imagine some things that city authorities might do to make business more attractive, especially by extra painstaking in the way of keeping clean the narrow, gloomy streets where operators live.

IN 1845 two men went to Richmond to collect a debt of a merchant, and failed to get the money. They agreed with the merchant's clerk, and after he had gone home in the evening bought $4,000 worth of goods, took bills of sale, packed, and were gone before daylight with the goods. The merchant brought suit; six years after it was tried, and the jury could not agree; eight years after it was tried, and a verdict given of $10,000 damages. They appealed, and now, after eight years more, the case has been sent back to the lower court for a new trial. One of the defendants is now dead, and the other bankrupt.

THE editor of the Cleveland Herald, writing from Washington, repeats the observation on the lips of shrewd observers everywhere. He says: "To one keeping his ear close to the political ground-swell of the National Capital, a fast growing impression may be detected that in the approaching Presidential Convention, General Grant will ultimately eclipse all competitors for the nomination to the highest place in the gift of the people."

THIS Yankee Government is building railroads for the South, furnishing them with rolling stock, supporting postoffices and post-roads over vast wildernesses, paying a crushing tax for emancipating its laborers, supporting schools for its ignorant people, feeding its starving poor, and building its levees. Whether this work will win gratitude and friendship, or contempt and enmity, remains to be seen.

THE New York Gazette, in the following paragraph, corrects that which only the ninnies of the press would not know was a budget purposely framed to be as ridiculous as possible:

"Some sensation scribbler has started an item pretending to give the incomes of the New York editors. The statements made are utterly incorrect and false, as are about one-half the 'gossip' items concocted nowadays by the correspondents."

IT is pretty well understood that a majority of the Judiciary Committee will report against impeachment. A great mass of testimony will have been recorded, which will be an ugly thing for some men to contemplate or deal with, in case they come before the people.

A GENTLEMAN writes us a letter from Ohio, indorsing our censure of Mr. Greeley's course, wherein he says he has been a subscriber to the Tribune for twenty years, but that he indignantly drops it now.

ROHRER'S EXPECTORAL

WILD CHERRY TONIC.

Originally this tonic was largely used in Switzerland—as early as 1700—with great success, and subsequently brought to America by Dr. JOHN JACOB ROHRER, who emigrated in 1732. He used it as an infallible remedy for the following complaints in this country: Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Laryngitis, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Pulmonary Phthisis or Consumption, Pnumothorax, Emphysema of the Lungs, Palpitation of the Heart, and Atrophy of the Heart. Diseases of the Stomach and Intestines, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diarrhœa, Dysentery and Piles. Diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, Abscesses of the Liver, Deficient and Augmented Secretion of Bile, Inflammation of the Kidneys and Bladder. Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Typhoid and Typhus Fever. It is a certain and sure preventive and cure for Asiatic Cholera. It eradicates all Pustular Diseases of the Skin, and as a Blood Purifier there is no compound to compete with it. For diseases of Females in weakness and prostration, Chlorosis or Green Sickness, to which young females are liable, and in weakness and general debility, there is no Tonic like it. This Tonic will cure and alleviate all morbid affections the human system is liable to. Try it? It will speak for itself when once given a fair trial, its great remedial powers never fail. It is a purely vegetable mixture, selected strictly from among the best Roots and Herbs in the ancient and modern Materia Medica.

Practical Test of Co-Operation.

The Northwestern Manufacturing Company, of Chicago, have devised, and entered into, a plan of settling the question of the antagonism of capital in labor, and capital in cash, which appears to be the dawning of a better day. The company, and committee of foremen of the shops, have agreed upon a valuation of the property and good will of the concern. On this the company is to receive ten per cent., per annum. All salaries and wages are to be on the scale of average prices, for ten hours work, as now paid in Chicago. The wages of each workman to be fixed, according to skill and dexterity, by the foreman of his shop, with right of appeal to the officers of the company, whose decision is to be final. After paying all expenses of carrying on the business, the net proceeds are to be divided into two equal parts, one half to go to the stockholders, the other to the workmen. The proportion of each will be according to his wages—the more skilled and industrious receiving a larger share of the profits than the unskilled,—thus abolishing the dead level of Trades' Unions, and giving a premium for skill and industry. The workmen can become stockholders, but, on leaving, must sell his stock, at ten per cent. interest or advance, to the company.

If the business will not employ all the workmen ten hours, the hours of all to be reduced and the wages to be reduced accordingly. No workman to be discharged for want of business. They can, at any time, elect a committee of two, to examine the books of the company, and by their written agreement bind themselves to have no connection with any Trades' Union. Only the sober and industrious are admitted. Enough of the workmen have already signed the articles of agreement to insure a trial of this, the republican form of government in workshops. This moral establishment will be closely welded, and have the good wishes of thousands.

THE time fixed for the National Bankrupt act to go into effect is Saturday next. Owing to the delay which has attended the framing and distributing of the rules and regulations, it is doubtful if more than the courts in some of the principal cities will be ready to proceed. If for such a reason detriment should come to applicants, would they be without recourse for the consequences?

THE principal grain centers are manifesting, just now, certain significant fluctuations in prices—a sort of trembling sensation like that which precedes the final plunge of the sinking ship. The grand prospect ahead for the wheat crop—now within two months of the market—has brought out some thousands of bushels of old wheat, and the market from this time forward is bound to decline.

THE father who fixes on his child a stigma by associating him in the minds of all who pronounce his name with an infamy that will endure so long as written history is extant, must himself be capable of almost any crime,—which remark we are led to make from seeing it stated that the notorious Dr. J. P. Humbleton, in Atlanta, Ga., has recently given to his infant child the name of John Wilkes Booth.

THE speech made by Senator Sumner in Executive session on the Russian Treaty, is so long that no paper can print it. If size is to be taken as the measure of power, never was such a speech delivered before. Perhaps it is as well the popular idea should rest on a knowledge of the size rather than on a reading of the speech.

A CONTEMPORARY thinks the people will not calmly see Sheridan removed. A good many things have been done which the people did not calmly see, yet were bound to endure, with surprising resignation. It might be well if they were less easy to reconcile to measures which at first shock their sense of right.

GEN. JOHN A. LOGAN and United States Senator Stewart, of Nevada, will visit Mississippi next month, to address the people of that State on political questions.

SAGE TEA IN PROFUSE SWEATING.—An old remedy for excessive sweating is again brought to public notice in the shape of cold sage tea. It is made by taking a large teaspoonful of chopped sage leaves, and boiling them in six ounces of water for two or three minutes. The decoction is then left to stand and cool, and is strained and sweetened to the taste. This remedy has been used with benefit in the colliquative sweating, as it is called, of pulmonary consumption.

JULES JARED'S
"EMAIL DE PARIS,"
THE NEW
BEAUTIFIER OF THE SKIN

Testimonials from Celebrated Ladies:
The secret of beautifying the Skin being known only to Messrs. Jared & Rene, they honestly state that it differs from all other preparations. It gives to the most harsh and freckled skin both the color and texture of polished ivory, removing all discolorations, whether appearing as freckles, tan, morphew, moth or black-worm specks, and is especially successful in smoothing out the marks left by small-pox.
The agents of "Email de Paris" most confidently submit to the public the earnest endorsements of such distinguished ladies as Signora Ristori, M'lle Felicita Vestvali, Miss Maggie Mitchell, Mrs. D. P. Bowers, Lucille Western, Mad. Ponisi, Mrs. Emma Waller, Lucy Rushton, Noemie de Marguerrittes, Miss Agnes Perry,
And many others, whose high standing in the profession gives the stamp of truthfulness to their intelligent and genuine approval.
The beautiful Lucille Western says:
I find that the "Email" produces all the brilliancy of rouge and lilly white, with the great and peculiar advantages of perfect harmlessness. It really adds to the softness and beauty of the skin.
The Magnificent Vestvali says:
I have suffered so much from the various white lotions, &c., which my theatrical profession obliges me to use, that I consider it a perfect benefaction to find a preparation which gives the necessary whiteness to the skin, and leaves the skin cool and smooth.
Miss Maggie Mitchell says:
I have tried the skin beautifier "L'Email de Paris," and found that it instantly imparts a natural bloom and freshness to the complexion.
"Jared Email de Paris" is used as a delicate beautifier of the skin for Theater, Saloon or Ball Room, by the most refined and scrupulous ladies; producing all the beautifying effects of rouge and lilly white, without their vulgar glare or injury to the skin.

FILES! FILES!
THE AUBURN FILE WORKS
AUBURN, NEW YORK,
Would call the attention of manufacturers and those using Files and Rasps to the superior article of HAND CUT FILES, which they are now making from the best quality of Cast Steel, consisting of Flat, Hand, Mill, Saw, Round, Half Round, Square, Taper Saw Files, Horse Rasps, and all other kinds, which are in no respect inferior to any now made.
It accords neither with our taste or our principle to assert that our Files have never been approached by any other manufacturer. The Files must speak for themselves, and those who wish to purchase largely are sufficiently wise to accept the evidence of the files rather than the assertion of the manufacturers.
Your orders may be left with T. H. RICHARDS, Esq., 30 Fifth street, Pittsburgh, where samples of some of the principal kinds may be examined and prices obtained. Your orders will be carefully executed at the manufactory, and warranted to give satisfaction or Files returned.
We have permission to refer to the Pittsburgh Novelty Works, who are now using our work to their entire satisfaction. Under date of November 28, 1867, they say:
"The files give general satisfaction in regard to temper and cut. The only objection we find is, they are cut too fine for our use. A coarser cut would suit us better. Please remember this when we send another order."
Also of May 6th, 1867, enclosing draft for $183 73.
"Your Files give satisfaction, and you have permission to use our name in regard to their quality."
Please call and examine samples before placing your orders.
H. G. THORNTON.

BANKS AND BANKERS.

RAILROAD BONDS. FISK & HATCH, BANKERS, AND DEALERS IN Government and other Desirable Securities. No. 5 Nassau St., N. Y., Recommend to Investors the FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, OF THE CENTRAL PACIFIC R. R. CO. This Company is constructing under the patronage of the United States Government, the Western end of the Great National Railway Across the Continent.

Their line will extend from Sacramento, California, across the Sierra Nevadas to the California State Line, traversing the Richest and most Populous Section of California, and thence through the Great Mining Regions of the Territories, to the vicinity of Salt Lake City.

It forms the sole Western link of the only route to the Pacific which is adopted by Congress and aided by the issue of United States Bonds.

Their road is already completed, equipped and running for 94 miles from Sacramento to within 12 miles of the summit of the Sierras, and a large amount of the work of Grading, Tunnelling, &c., beyond that point has been accomplished.

The First Mortgage Bonds of this Company afford unusual inducements of Safety and Profit to Investors, for the following among other reasons, viz:

First. The rate of interest is Six per Cent. in Gold, payable semi-annually in the city of New York.

Second. The Principal is payable in Gold at maturity.

Third. The cost of the Bonds, Ninety-five Per Cent. and accrued interest, is Ten Per Cent. less than that of the cheapest Six Per Cent. Gold Bearing Bonds of the Government.

Fourth. The United States Government provides nearly half the amount necessary to build the entire road, and looks mainly to a small percentage on the future traffic for re-payment.

Fifth. Owing to this liberal provision, accompanied with Extensive Grants of Public Lands, by which the Government fosters this great national enterprise, its success is rendered certain, and its financial stability is altogether independent of the contingencies which attend ordinary Railroad enterprises.

Sixth. The Security of its First Mortgage Bonds is therefore ample, and their character for safety and reliability is equalled only by that of the obligations of the Government itself.

Seventh. The net earnings of the completed portion are already largely in excess of the interest obligations which the Company will incur on twice the distance, and are steadily increasing, rendering the uninterrupted payment of the Interest absolutely certain.

Eigth. At the present rate of Gold they pay nearly 8½ Per Cent. per annum, on the amount invested.

The Bonds are issued in denominations of $1,000 with semi annual Gold Coupons attached, payable in New York, and are offered for the present at 95 per cent. and accrued interest (in currency) from January 1st.

Orders may be forwarded to us direct, or through the principal Banks and Bankers in all parts of the country.

Remittances may be made in drafts on New York, or in Legal Tender Notes, National Bank Notes or other funds current in this city, and the Bonds will be forwarded to any address by express, free of charge. Inquiries for further particulars, by mail or otherwise, will receive punctual attention.

FISK & HATCH, BANKERS AND DEALERS IN GOVERNMENT SECURITIES, NO. 5 NASSAU STREET, N. Y. N. B.—All kinds of Government Securities received at the full market price in exchange for the above Bonds. CITY MATTERS.

THE MONUMENTAL FAIR.

Formal Opening of the Exhibition.

Speech by General J. K. Moorhead.

Description of the Booths, &c., &c. &c.

The formal opening of the Ladies' Monumental Association Fair, at City Hall, took place last evening, and notwithstanding the threatening aspect of the weather, the attendance was very large. At eight o'clock General A. L. Pearson, Chairman of the Executive Committee, called the meeting to order, when Rev. John G. Brown, D. D., delivered an appropriate prayer. General J. K. Moorhead, who had been selected to deliver the opening address, was then introduced, and spoke substantially as follows:

SPEECH OF GENERAL MOORHEAD.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—I appreciate very highly the compliment paid me by the ladies having charge of this fair, in choosing me to make the opening address. I regret that their selection had not fallen upon one whose literary tastes and acquirements would have fitted him to do full justice to the subject. I presume they were afraid of a long speech, and knew I would give them a short one. The object of this fair, I understand, is to aid in obtaining funds to erect a monument to the memory of the soldiers of this county, who fell in the late rebellion. If the causes of the rebellion were new questions, to be discussed here and now, it might be proper for me to enter upon that discussion, and give you my views and opinions with regard to them; but I will not waste your time nor insult your judgment in any such manner.

The greatness of our country is, you know, the boast of Americans, and very properly so. God in His Providence has dealt bountifully with us. For soil, climate, prairies, mountains, valleys, rivers, lakes or great inland seas, harbors, line of sea-coast, extent and variety of mineral wealth, and all the resources necessary for the sustenance, comfort and happiness of man, it is without an equal in the known world.

Our Government, formed by the wisdom and won by the valor of our forefathers, who had thrown off the British yoke and declared themselves to be a free people, is the best and most enlightened government in the world. The States were united in a central government, forming the United States of America; under this system we have grown in power, wealth, influence and population, in a manner altogether without precedent. Churches, free schools, colleges, hospitals, asylums, together with all the institutions that the benign influence of christianity would foster and promote, have been liberally spread throughout our extended country.

We had not only become "the asylum for the distressed of all nations," but our great free country was fast becoming the chosen spot for foreigners of every class and condition, for in this land of liberty industry is rewarded, and the road to honor, wealth and fame, lies open to all. It was this country and government, which I have feebly tried to describe, that the war of the rebels was waged to destroy.

It was to save this Government from destruction, this Union from being dissolved, the bond that holds the States together from being dissevered, that the Union men of the United States rallied at the call of the President, under the flag of the country in countless numbers. It was for this that the brave men of Allegheny, to whose memory it is proposed to erect a monument, sacrificed their lives. It was for this that thousands of our fellow-citizens suffered worse than martyrdom, and were starved to death in Southern prisons. It was for this that the Pittsburgh Subsistence Committee sprang into existence, and supplied food and lodging to the hundreds of thousands that passed through our city during the war; by which they have raised a monument to themselves, which will endure in history as long as this Government has a place amongst the nations of the earth. It was for this that mourning and desolation were brought to so many households; that so many widows and mothers in the land in poverty and affliction continue to mourn for the brave men that were, but are not, whose remains fill soldiers' graves. It was for this that Jackson fell at Fredericksburg; that the brave and gallant Rippey gave his life at Fair Oaks; that the eloquent Black poured out his life's blood at Gaines Mill. So of the invincible and fearless Hays, the youthful and ardent Childs, the brave Moody, the firm and intrepid Hull, Coleman, Robinson, Poland, Espy, McKee, Abers, Dale, Ward, Miller, Anshutz, Long, Sahl, and Parks.

But why do I attempt to enumerate them? I cannot do it. All, all, officers and privates of Allegheny who fell, died for their country, and deserve this memorial. It was for this cause that the Christian Commission and Sanitary Commission, established and supported by the loyalty and benevolence of the North, followed in the track of war, bound up the wounds, healed the sick and cherished the famishing soldier, and after administering to their bodily wants, pointed them "to the Lamb of God who taketh away the sins of the world."

Why then should we not raise a monument to their memory? Why not engrave in enduring marble the names of these saviours of their country? But some say, it is better to use the money that will be raised for this purpose in feeding the starving, and providing for the widows and orphans of those who have fallen. We must do both. Our State, to her honor, has made provision for the education and care of the soldiers' orphans, and the benevolence of our people will not let any suffer.

At this time meetings are being held throughout the Southern States to raise funds to build a soldiers' monument, at Richmond, Va., in commemoration of the brave deeds of Confederate soldiers who fought to destroy the Government. If they, in their stricken, desolated and impoverished condition, can take the means from what is represented as a starving people to build a monument that will stand as an evidence of treason, should we hesitate to proclaim in marble the glorious deeds of our fallen braves, that gave us victory?

No, my fellow citizens, let us erect it high and durable in honor of their memory, and let us remember that in doing so we are honoring ourselves. Let each one feel that it will be an honor to say, I aided in this great work. Let us emulate each other. Let the men do their duty in this behalf, and not be put to shame by the gentler sex, who always do theirs—who were last at the cross and first at the sepulchre.

Let us all feel as the little boy did in Washington City last summer. The Rev. Doctor Butler was making an appeal for funds to build a memorial church; he urged all to do something, if they could not do more, to be able to say that they had one brick in it. The next morning the little curly headed urchin called on the Doctor with a brick in his hand, saying "here, Doctor, is my brick." Go thou and do likewise.

But it will succeed. We will have the aid of the loyal, and we are all loyal now. The influence of the ladies is with us, and they never fail. After the exhibition of patience, privation and endurance we have had from so many hundreds of wives and daughters who flitted about like angels of mercy among the sick and wounded soldiers during the war, we may rest assured when they say the monument shall be built, that it will be built.

"With charity to all and malice towards none," let us go ahead.

THE FAIR.

The various booths have been fitted up beautifully, and great taste has been displayed in their ornamentation. Many of them, however, had not been fully completed, but it is expected that they will be by noon to-day. The articles on exhibition embrace many novelties not heretofore introduced into fairs, and a few hours can be passed very pleasantly in inspecting them. The ladies having the matter in charge are exerting themselves to render the exhibition a success, and no doubt now exists in the mind of any one as to the result.

THE TELEGRAPH.

As the visitor first enters the door his attention is attracted to the telegraph office. Lines of wire extend through the room, and messages are sent and delivered promptly. Mr. H. S. Snowden has charge of this department, and is assisted by fifteen operators and assistants.

THE HOPE.

The members of the Hope Steam Fire Company of Allegheny have fitted up a neat booth, and filled it with a choice selection of articles. The prize silver fire horn, won by the company at the great Sanitary Fair in Allegheny, and the beautiful steamer, manufactured by the Bohemian Glass Blowers, and presented to the company, occupy prominent positions. A miniature house, built by a prisoner in the Penitentiary, is also exhibited. Mrs. Bonafon and Mrs. Northam, of this city, Mrs. Wilkins, of Haysville, Mrs. Phillips, of Manchester, and Misses McDonald and Graff, have presented the company with many beautiful articles of fancy needle work. The money received at this booth will be applied towards aiding the company to compete for the prize hose carriage.

SHADY SIDE.

The ladies of Shady Side occupy the two booths adjoining, which are under the charge of Mrs. Barton and Mrs. Chambers. The booths are handsomely ornamented, and are filled with a choice selection of needle work, embroideries, fancy toilet articles, writing desks, etc. The display is very fine, and is one of the prominent features of the fair. Misses Lightner, Barton and Dehaven were in attendance at the tables last evening.

NINTH WARD.

The tables of the ladies of the Ninth ward are abundantly supplied with fancy articles. A beautiful dressing gown to be given to the minister receiving in the ward receiving the highest number of votes, and a fireman's horn, will be contested for at this booth. The tables are in charge of Misses Mowry, Armstrong, Berger and Evans.

BEAUTIFUL CHAIR.

A magnificent iron frame chair, luxuriously cushioned, to be presented to the most popular commander of a Post of the G. A. R. in the county, comes next. Mrs. Dr. C. King is in charge, assisted by Misses Robinson, Shaw and Ray.

MANSFIELD.

The Mansfield ladies have a table well filled with fancy articles. A beautiful set of silver ware is on exhibition, and will be disposed of by chances. Mrs. Bedell and Misses Smythe and Cook have control of this department.

EXPRESS OFFICE.

This is a new feature in fairs, and may prove a great convenience, as any article purchased in the hall can be forwarded to any part of the city. A number of packages were handed in last evening and were forwarded to their destinations. Mrs. Clapp, who is in charge, is assisted by Misses Wray, Campbell and Anshutz.

HANDIWORK OF THE BLIND.

The articles which the pupils of the Institute for the Blind failed to dispose of during their recent exhibitions in this city, have been assigned a prominent position, and will be sold on commission. Mrs. Umbstetter superintends the tables, and is aided by Misses Sallie Herron, Mary Johnston and Rosa Baelz.

NORTH CHURCH.

The ladies connected with the North Church, Allegheny, have fitted up a neat Toy store, which is under the supervision of Mrs. Thompson, assisted by Misses F. Lyon, M. Logan, A. Clark and Callie Dawson.

CURIOSITY SHOP.

The booth adjoining, which is under the care of Captain W. B. Cook, contains a large number of trophies captured during the war, piles of old newspapers, veneered tables, etc. The tables are lighted by lamps [illegible] sheets. A half hour may [illegible] pleasantly in examining the curiosities.

MANCHESTER.

The patriotic ladies of the Fifth Ward, Allegheny, display great taste in the arrangements of the many beautiful articles they have for sale. Miss Mollie Howard, Miss Aggie Patterson, Mrs. Kate Cougher, Kate Phelps and Maggie McQuewan, are in charge of this booth.

SOLDIERS' HOME.

The display made by the inmates of the Soldiers' Home in the Ninth Ward, is very fine. The articles on exhibition are mainly the handiwork of maimed soldiers. A one-armed soldier was diligently engaged in making a shoe, while a comrade, who had also lost an arm, amused the visitors by manufacturing baskets.

SUNNY SIDE.

Mrs. Gen. Pearson has charge of this booth, and is aided by a large corps of lady assistants. J. B. Lyon, Esq., has contributed a beautiful assortment of glassware, while Messrs. Bollman & Co., have added a cooking stove to the collection. Two beautiful sewing machines are also exhibited for sale. The assortment of fancy needlework and embroideries is large and varied.

DRESSING GOWN.

A beautiful black velvet dressing gown, lined with crimson silk, to be given to the most popular soldier in the county, attracted great attention, and will undoubtedly be the means of realizing a considerable sum. A gold headed cane, to be given the county official receiving the highest number of votes, will also be strongly competed for. Mrs. Robert Sellers has charge of these articles.

CHRIST CHURCH.

The ladies of Christ M. E. Church have prepared many beautiful articles which are meeting with a ready sale. Misses Galway, Follansbee, Little and Hoffstott superintend the tables.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Among the many ornamental and useful articles displayed at this booth, is a boquet of flowers, painted on slate, by Miss Williams. A neat dressing gown, and a quantity of children's clothing were also much admired. Misses Hays, McCord, Arthurs and Lawton were in charge of the tables last evening.

THIRD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

This booth is fitted up very neatly, and has for a motto the words—"They Died for Us." The assortment of useful and ornamental articles exhibited is very fine. Mrs. James Dihm, Mrs. Preston and Misses Moorhead and Johnston are in charge.

THE PAGODA.

The Pagoda, or Floral Temple, has not yet been fully completed. A handsome set of silver, presented by Mr. McKee, of the Ninth ward, is exhibited in this department, of which Mrs. Dr. Cote has charge.

PICTURE GALLERY.

The small room in the southwest corner of the hall has been fitted up as a picture gallery, and although not yet fully completed is well worthy of a visit. A number of really meritorious works of art have been introduced, many of which have been executed by residents of the vicinity. The gallery will be open for visitors to-day.

SANITARY COMMITTEE.

The Sanitary Committee, who have charge of the eating department, have, with their well-known energy and promptitude, made arrangements for furnishing a splendid dinner daily, from twelve till three o'clock. It is hoped that business men and others will extend their patronage to this department during the continuance of the fair.

TO-DAY.

Efforts will be made to have the various departments completed and ready for the reception of visitors upon the opening of the Fair at 10 o'clock this morning. It is expected that this will be the principal day of the exhibition, as many persons desire to attend before any of the articles have been carried away.

General Carey on Temperance.

A larger audience than was present on Monday night, greeted General S. F. Carey, of Cincinnati, Ohio, last night at Lafayette Hall, where he lectured a second time on Temperance. It is rarely the case that two consecutive lectures are delivered on this theme in one locality by temperance advocates, but General Carey could undoubtedly deliver a dozen. He is brim full of temperance argument, and what is of considerable importance in a public speaker, he never tires his audience. Last evening he spoke for nearly two hours, and the interest of his hearers was so perfectly maintained that when the General said his "time was up," a gentleman in the audience interrupted him by saying: "You haven't talked more than half an hour—go on, go on." General Carey devoted the most of his lecture to the license law system. Against it he brought an array of facts and arguments that were utterly unanswerable. His proposition was plainly stated. The manufacture and vending of intoxicating liquors was shown to be contrary to the law of God, and destructive to the public good. It was an evil in the sight of God and man. No State, therefore, had a right to license it—not any more than it has to legalize counterfeiting. What the Bible has to say on the subject of wine-drinking was logically considered, harmonized and brought to bear with great force against the use of intoxicating wines and liquors. The word of God does not sanction the use of intoxicating liquors in any shape. General Carey closed his remarks appealing to patriots, philanthropists and christians to take hold of the Temperance Reform movement and help it on to final victory.

We learn that an effort will be made to induce General Carey to re-visit Pittsburgh at an early day, and address our citizens on the license question.

WASHINGTON, May 28, 1867.

The State Lecturer of I. O. of Good Templars, Rev. John A. Davidson, preached a temperance sermon in the M. E. Church here, on Saturday evening, to a very large congregation, and on Monday evening lectured to a splendid audience in the Court House. Joseph Henderson, Esq., one of the veterans in the temperance cause, in the chair. The meeting opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Telfer. At the close of the lecture, which was received with marked attention and many tokens of approval, a lodge of Good Templars, called Covenant Lodge, was organized with one hundred and seventeen charter members, a large proportion of them being ladies. The following officers were elected and duly installed: Joseph Henderson, W. C. T.; Mrs. Pauline McKennan, W. V. T.; Mark Acheson, W. S.; Miss Beard, W. T.; Miss Drury, W. I. G.; James Amon, W. O. CITIZEN.

Suicide of a Hotel Keeper.

John Davis, proprietor of the Western Hotel, on Water street, near Wood, committed suicide yesterday afternoon, by taking poison. The deceased, it appears, had been so addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors, for some time past, as to produce delirium tremens. Yesterday afternoon he purchased a large quantity of oxalic acid. About five o'clock, while unseen, he swallowed the dose. He was discovered shortly afterwards, a physician sent for, and restoratives immediately applied, but all in vain, as the unfortunate man died within half an hour after he swallowed the poison. One-third of the amount of acid taken by him would have caused death. The deceased was about thirty-eight years of age, and leaves a wife and five children to mourn his fate. Coroner Clawson has been summoned, and will hold an inquest on the body this morning at nine o'clock.

BOY DROWNED—CORONER'S INQUEST.—Coroner Clawson held an inquest yesterday morning on the body of a boy named Aming Foerster, son of Mr. Edward Foerster, artist, residing in Reserve township, who was drowned in the Allegheny river, opposite Herr's Island, on Monday, about noon. It appears that Aming obtained permission for himself and brother to go with a party of boys fishing. In the course of their sport they got their boots muddy, and then got upon a raft for the purpose of washing them off in the river. While doing so he slipped off the raft and was drowned. The body was recovered about half-past seven o'clock the same evening. The Coroner's Jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning. The deceased was twelve years of age.

ELECTION IN ALLEGHENY.—In accordance with a resolution passed by the Allegheny City Councils, Mayor Morrison has issued a proclamation, calling upon the voters of that portion of McClure and Reserve townships, recently annexed to Allegheny City, and designated as the Seventh Ward, to assemble at the house of D. Lutz, at the foot of Troy Hill, Tuesday the 4th day of June next, between the hours of ten A. M. and seven P. M., and elect three persons to represent them in the Select Council, and four persons to represent them in the Common Council.

MEETING OF THE AGRICULTURAL BOARD.—The Board of Managers of the County Agricultural Society will meet this morning, at ten o'clock, at Messrs. Phelps Parke & Co.'s office, St. Clair street, to hear the final report of the Committee appointed to confer with the State Agricultural Board in reference to holding the next fair at this place. The meeting is an important one and every member should attend.

BIRMINGHAM.—There is probably no borough in this vicinity advancing more rapidly in building improvements than Birmingham. There are several new buildings now being erected in that borough, among which are: A two-story brick building on Carson street, near Craig street, which is being built for a store; a two-story brick dwelling on Green street, near Gregg street; also a two-story brick dwelling on Carson street, near Third street, and several others on Carson street.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.—A horse attached to a buck-wagon, driven by a boy in the employ of Messrs. J. Snodgrass & Co., druggists in Allegheny, took fright in the vicinity of the Allegheny Market House, yesterday afternoon about one o'clock, and ran away at a terrible gate. The wagon was smashed to pieces, and the boy thrown out, and quite severely injured by striking some boulders on the street.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, at Glendale Station, on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, will be set apart for the worship of the Triune God, on Thursday, May 30th. Appropriate services will be held in the German language at 10 o'clock A. M., and in the English at 2 o'clock P. M. This church has been built under the pastorate of the Rev. H. Gilbert.

Public Amusements.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Mr. Murdoch delighted a large and intelligent audience last evening by his impersonation of "Beverley," in the play of "The Gamester." In obedience to a large number of requests, Mr. Murdoch will this evening repeat his performance of "Alfred Evelyn," in Bulwer's comedy of "Money"—one of his very best impersonations, and which is admirably performed by the stock company. Those who appreciate a first-class dramatic performance should attend the Academy this evening.

OPERA HOUSE.—The inclemency of the weather last evening prohibited a large turn out to witness the "Black Crook;" still the house was comfortably filled. New dances, new costumes and other attractive features are to be introduced in the play soon.

VARIETIES.—A good audience was present last evening to witness the excellent performances at this house. The singing, dancing and burlesques are all of an entertaining character.

A PROVINCIAL TOUR.—We understand that upon the conclusion of the Opera House season, Harry Overington, Treasurer of the Opera House, contemplates a dramatic tour through the neighboring cities and towns. The company will embrace some of the best talent connected with the prominent places of amusement in this city. His tour will be duly heralded, and he will deserve a liberal support.

Personal.

We dropped into Gardner & Stewart's new and splendidly stocked dry goods house, corner of Market and Fourth streets, yesterday afternoon, and found our friend W. E. Stewart, who was late principal salesman in the firm of Gardner & Schleiter, and now is the partner of Mr. Gardner, deeply engrossed in business as he is always, for he is one of the most energetic dry goods men in the country. Mr. Stewart performed good service in the Union army during the late war, and since he came back his success in mercantile pursuits has been no less gratifying; indeed, it is something for his friends to boast of that he has so soon earned his way to a partnership in one of the most successful houses in the Iron City. He has a very large circle of friends and commands a very heavy trade, and the secret of his popularity is that he tells buyers just what his goods are, and he sells at the very lowest possible figure. Any one who deals with our friend Stewart always goes back again to him. We never knew him to loose a customer; on the contrary, there is an anxious inquiry made for him by those who want to buy to advantage. We commend him to our readers generally, and advise them all to give him a call.

Important Action of Livery Men.

A just and necessary change in the tariff of prices for the use of Hearses by our city Livery Men has just been made. In order to comprehend the whole matter, we have only to inform our readers that with this change the price still remains lower than in other cities, both east and west. A Hearse can only be used at a funeral, and generally it never pays its original cost to the owner. It is perfectly right, therefore, that the charge for its use should be increased. This has been done, and the new tariff will be found as reasonable as circumstances can make it. The action of the Livery Men was as follows:

At a meeting of Livery Men of Pittsburgh, Allegheny City and vicinity, held on May 14th, 1867,

Resolved, That on and after first day of June that the Hire of Hearse for City Funeral be $8; half day $10; full day, $12@15, according to distance.

COUNTRY SEATS BETWEEN PITTSBURGH AND BRADDOCK'S FIELD.—We are informed that a few years ago country seats could have been bought at Wilkinsburg at $200 per acre, which in small town lots are now averaging Mr. Kelly, the proprietor, $5,000 per acre. Lots have been sold at Edgewood, the next station beyond, at from $1,000 to $1,200 per acre. Some lots were sold at Swissvale some years ago at $100 per acre, and afterwards, several years since, at $800, but owing to a pending law suit the balance of the farm is not in the market. At Hawkins Station, between Swissvale and Braddock's, we are informed there is about 30 acres adjoining that station which the proprietor would sell in lots to suit purchasers, at prices as low as can be bought on either side of it. Persons desirous of securing a beautiful country seat would do well to examine this plot of land.

BE ON YOUR GUARD against the imitations and counterfeits of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, with which the PIRATES who make a DISHONORABLE LIVING, by preying upon the sick and suffering, are now endeavoring to flood the markets of this country. Whenever these POISON-MONGERS are discovered they are immediately prosecuted by the proprietors, who expend thousands of dollars annually in tracing them out and bringing them to justice. Within a short time injunctions have been obtained in the Courts of the United States against a number of individuals and firms, and suits are now in progress against several others, all of whose names will be given to the public. But in spite of the utmost vigilance and activity of their detective agents, the undersigned are, of course, unable to protect the public entirely against piratical imitations of a Standard National Tonic, everywhere in request, and as readily convertible into cash as United States Bonds or Treasury Notes. They, therefore, as a MEASURE OF PRECAUTION, direct attention to the fact that a finely engraved label, representing St. George and the Dragon, and a beautiful proprietary stamp bearing the official endorsement of the Government, appear on every bottle of the genuine BITTERS. The article is further authenticated by a miniature note of hand, with the signature of "Hostetter & Smith," to counterfeit which is a state prison crime. The true BITTERS are sold in bottles only, and never in bulk. HOSTETTER & SMITH.

TUESDAY EVENING, May 28, 1867.

The tendency of the gold premium to-day is for lower rates. It opened firm this forenoon in the New York market at 137@137¼, but became dull later in the day.

United States securities are lower. The chief activity in them at present is due to the conversion operations of the Treasury, the demand for export being very light, and it is to be hoped it will continue so; for there is already far too large an amount of our bonds held in Europe and liable to be returned to us at any time, to be compatible with our own financial safety.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, TUESDAY EVENING, May 28, 1867.

There was some improvement in the amount of business transacted in our general markets to-day. Buyers and consumers, however, continue to take only such quantities as are actually required to supply present necessities. Neither buyer nor consumer has bought ahead this spring, consequently, as a cotemporary remarks, the prospect are unquestionably better for a good summer trade. Business cannot come to a stand-still when consumption is pressing close upon the heels of commerce; and hence it is evident there can be no protracted intermission of trade during the coming warm season, as in ordinary times. The masses must be supplied with the necessaries and comforts of life: and if they choose to take these things in small rather than large instalments, they will have to come the oftener, and take more time to accomplish the object. Flour continues in fair demand at a slight reduction on yesterday's prices. There is considerable doing in provisions. The demand for some kinds of groceries is quite active. Butter continues very dull and under large receipts of eggs, prices are drooping. Other articles of a staple nature are without any noticeable change.

The receipts of some of the leading articles of produce, per river and rail, since our last, were as follows: Flour 1,449 bbls; apples 4 barrels; corn 145 sacks; barley 450 sacks; rye 163 sacks; oats 1,702 sacks, and butter 25 packages.

We quote as follows, which are the wholesale prices, unless otherwise stated:

APPLES—The supply of choice green apples is very meager, and prices keep advancing. We quote prime articles selling readily, from store, at $8 00@10 00 ₱ bbl.

APPLE BUTTER—We note sales to-day of 8 kegs at 75c ₱ gal.

ASHES—We quote soda ash at 5¼c; pot ash at 8½c; and pearls 14c ₱ lb.

BEANS—Small white beans are scarce and quoted at $3 00 ₱ bush.

BUTTER—Market dull at 15@20c ₱ lb. The quotations for choice roll are about 18c ₱ lb. Very little sales above this figure. The receipts are more than adequate to the demand.

CHEESE—We note sales of 30 boxes W. R. at 14c, and 15 boxes Goshen at 20c ₱ lb.

DRIED FRUIT—Market dull and prices nominal. We quote Apples at 7½@9½c, and Peaches at 12@18c ₱ lb.

EGGS—The market is active at a small decline. We note sales of 25 bbls at 18c ₱ doz.

FLOUR—There is a fair local demand at a slight reduction on yesterday's prices. Receipts are light, and stocks of good brands are small. We quote choice spring brands at $14 25@14 50 ₱ bbl, and Jenkins's Lily at $15 00 ₱ bbl. Rye flour is quoted at $9 50 ₱ bbl, and corn meal at $1 15 ₱ bbl.

GRAIN—We hear of no reported sales of wheat, and prices are nominal.

CORN—There was very little done in corn. We quote the market dull at $1 00@1 05 from store. Sales of small lots were made at these figures.

OATS—The market is active at 70@75c per bushel. We hear of an offer being made for 2,000 bushels, in the Elevator, at 75c per bushel and refused. The receipts per river and rail during the past two days were 3,945 sacks. We note sales of 200 bushels, from store, at 72c, and 1,000 bushels, to arrive, buyer furnishing sacks, at 68c per bushel.

RYE—We note sales of Rye at $1 65@1 70 ₱ bushel.

FEED—Sales reported of five tons chop at $2 05, and five tons do. at $2 10 ₱ hundred.

HAY—We note sales of one car No. 1 at $25 00, and one car No. 2 at $23 00 ₱ ton.

POTATOES—Good articles are in demand at an advance. We note a sale of one car P. B. at $1 40 ₱ bushel.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, WEDNESDAY, May 29, 1867.

Business was not very active. There is a wide difference of opinion between buyers and sellers. Neither party seems disposed to give way. Holders of crude exhibited more firmness, and were asking an advance. Good gravities were held firmly at 7½c. Buyers were offering 7¼c. The stock of crude on hand is not very extensive. The receipts by the Allegheny since our last were 5,400 bbls. Prices of crude would be governed by the gravities. Dispatches from Oil City report a dull market, with sales of crude at $2 60 ₱ bbl, being a decline. We give the report for what it is worth. The only sales that came under our notice were 600 bbls bulk, on the spot, at terms not made public. Sales 2,000 bbls bulk, June delivery; parties interested, however, declined to furnish the figures; 7½c may be considered the rates for suitable gravities.

REFINED OILS—We could not learn of a single transaction for present or future delivery. We omit figures, as they would have no bearing on the market. The following are reported sales made in Philadelphia yesterday: Prime light straw to white, on spot, 24½c ₱ gallon; June delivery 25½c, and prime light straw to white, sellers' option, 25½c, buyers' option, 25½c. These are certainly low figures.

TITUSVILLE, PA.

The market is firm and moderately active, but without any general change in prices. The demand for the Cleveland and Pittsburgh market still continues, and the market was generally well attended by buyers. The Herald, of Saturday, says: "On the McElhenny Farm offers of $2 50 were made for 47 gr. delivered on the bank. The sales reported to-day were as follows: 100 barrels on Pail Run from the Kinney well, for the New York market, 47 gr., at $2 40 at the wells; 400 barrels on Cow Run, by the Montreal Petroleum Co., for the New York market, 47 gr., at $2 00 at the wells; 500 barrels on Pioneer Run, by the Benninghoff Oil Co., for the New York market, 46 gr., at $2 25 delivered on the cars; 100 barrels on the McClintock Farm, for the local market, 45 gr., at $2 25 at the wells; 200 barrels on Benninghoff Hill, for the Cleveland market, 45 gr., at $2 15 at the wells; 500 barrels on the Stevenson Farm, from Stambaugh & Co.'s wells, for the Cleveland market, 45 gr., at $2 25 at the wells; 300 barrels on the McClintock Farm, for the local market, 45 gr., at $2 30 at the wells; 700 barrels on Bennehoff Run, from lease No. 58, for the Cleveland market, 46 gr., at $2 29 at the wells.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

CHICAGO.

Saturday night last closed one of the most profitable weeks in cattle of the season. Under light receipts sellers experienced no difficulty in disposing of their offerings at an advance of 20@25c ₱ 100 lbs. over the closing range of the previous Saturday. During the week, says the Republican, some few very choice droves of graded shipping steers were closed out at figures as high as $9 75@9 87½ ₱ 100 lbs; but such, being extreme, cannot be taken into consideration in quoting the general market, for they are not to be depended upon. The bulk of the shipping offerings were taken for Albany, New York, Pittsburgh and Buffalo at prices ranging from $8 87½@9 50 for prime to really choice, and $7 25@8 75 for common to good smooth second class grades. The offerings of stock cattle were taken by feeders from Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, at $5 75@7 25, the outside for thrifty, heavy lots. The offerings of butchers' cattle were readily taken up, principally by local dealers, at $7@7 50 for good to choice, and $6 20@6 85 for common to fair cows, scalawag steers and rough oxen, thin up by city butchers at prices ranging from $3@3 75. To-day the market ruled very quiet, there being no buyers in attendance. The entered sales foot up 24 head. In the absence of sufficient sales to establish reliable quotations, we report the market quiet and unchanged. About 240 head, chiefly common butchers' stock, remain over unsold.

Dealers generally anticipate a good market next week, and local butchers will likely under moderate receipts, to sustain the advance which they obtained this week.

The following are the rates of stock freights over the various Eastern roads from the Michigan Southern and Grand Trunk, 20c ₱ 100 lbs and passes; by the Michigan Central and Great Western to Suspension Bridge, 25c ₱ 100 lbs, and return passes. To Buffalo, by Michigan Southern and Lake Shore, 30c ₱ 100 lbs. Fort Wayne and Chicago road to Pittsburgh, 30c. Fort Wayne and Chicago road to Pittsburgh, 30c, and return passes.

HOGS—This market also has been quite active throughout the week, and closes firm at an advance over the rates current at the close of last Saturday. The bulk of the offerings were taken for New York, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Boston, and Baltimore, at prices ranging from $6 80@7 20 for good to choice, $6 65@6 75 for common to fair, and $4 75@5 75 for inferior and light. To-day the pens were entirely cleared. The entered sales foot up 2,438 head.

Sheep—The receipts during the week were 6,124 head, the shipments, 3,442 head, and the entered sales 3,566 head. Trade has been active in this department throughout the week, but on account of rather unfavorable advices from the East, prices were lower. The close of the week [illegible] lower. We report the market dull but firm. Very few sheep in the pens unsold, at $7 20 for good to choice, and $5 10@7 15 for common to fair grades.

LOUISVILLE.

At the Shelby House the receipts of stock were generally fair. The market for beef cattle was moderately active for good butcher cattle, and are selling from 7½@7¾c for good to 6½c, and 4½@5c for the lower grades. The hog market was about the same, and prices reached from 6½@8c, and a few have been sold at 9c. The arrivals of sheep were large, and prices ranged from 6@6½c as to quality. Market dull. Lambs were worth $1 75@3. At the Bourbon House the cattle market was dull, and prices declined about 25c on the better qualities, and 50c on lower grades. Sales ranged at 7@7¾c for the best; 6½@7c for fair to good; 5½@6c for ordinary. The hog market was unchanged. But few fresh stock have arrived during the week, and the old stock has been somewhat reduced. An advance in prices is likely to take place. Sales range at 7½@8c, gross, for the best, and 6@7c for good.

Coal Exports for May.

The following are the exports of Coal by river for the month of May, sent out in barges and towed by steamers built expressly for that business. The river has been extremely favorable; in fact, the towboatmen have had a busy time. The run is the largest that ever left Pittsburgh in the same length of time, amounting in the aggregate to 6,656,000 bushels, employing 74 towboats and 576 boats and barges. Their destinations were as follows:

Mill—stone coal	43 00@44 00
Foundry—charcoal	47 00@48 00

The supply of mill is equal to the demand, while the demand for charcoal foundry is active and the stock light.

The furnaces will all be in blast in a short time. The Scioto, Buckeye, Keystone, Washington, Monroe, Madison and Gallia furnaces are now in blast. The new rolling mill in this city has commenced operations.—Republican, May 25.

THE RIVER AND MATTERS ALONG THE WHARF.—Yesterday was exceedingly warm; it may be termed growing weather. Both rivers are in fine navigable order. The Monongahela marks indicate eleven feet and falling fast. The Allegheny twelve feet. The Argosy was engaged in discharging a good cargo. The Columbia came in from St. Paul. She has been on a long journey; she had a full back trip. The Belle Vernon was discharging a big lot of Missouri ore. The Leni Leoti brought up a fair trip. She returned to Parkersburg at noon. The Grey Eagle will be found at the landing this morning; she returns to Parkersburg at noon. This boat has become very popular. The Maggie Hays is the only boat loading for St. Louis; she will have dispatch; persons going that way will be well cared for. The far famed packet Kenton is receiving for Memphis and New Orleans. She will go through without reshipping. The Argosy takes her departure. The Spray is announced for Portsmouth. Several boats are in port waiting their turn. The present run of coal exceeds one million seven hundred thousand bushels; the exports for May being 6,656,000 bushels—the largest that was ever known in the same length of time. The fine packet Ida Rees is receiving for Cincinnati, and will have dispatch.

THE steamer Capt. Baker is at Cincinnati loading for St. Louis.

THE towboat Eagle arrived since our last. The Fearless, Sam Roberts and Tigress No. 2 were due.

THE Lorena passed Cincinnati on Sunday on her way to St. Louis.

THE Silver Cloud No. 2 and barges, passed Cairo on Sunday on her way to Cincinnati.

THE Richmond's last trip to Cairo was made in four days and one hour. She had no passengers.

THE steamer Julia No. 2 left Cincinnati for Louisville on Saturday.

IT will never do to give it up so. The Camelia is loading at Cincinnati for Tennessee river.

THE New York, Capt. Richmond, loading at Cincinnati for St. Louis, was to leave on Monday.

THE steamer Leni Leoti left for Parkersburg on time with a fair trip.

THE Portsmouth packet for this day is the steamer Spray, Capt. Smith. A good boat and attentive officers.

BOATS IN PORT.—Columbia, Importer, Belle Vernon, Argosy, Delaware, Minnie, Grey Eagle, Kenton, Kate Putnam, Maggie Hays, Ida Rees.

THE fine side wheel packet Grey Eagle, Captain Brennan, takes her departure this day at noon for Parkersburg and intermediate points. To persons going that way a fine opportunity is presented.

ANOTHER POSTPONEMENT.—The Richmond was to leave Louisville on Monday, but failed to get off until Tuesday. Will the Courier man give us another lecture on punctuality and low pressure?

PRETTY LONG STROKE.—In our description of the J. M. White, we stated her engines had ten feet stroke. The compositor made it nineteen. That might do for two boats but is entirely too much for one.

THE New Orleans Crescent says: General Shelby, of Missouri, arrived from Mexico via Havana, on Saturday, per steamer Cuba, and has been the guest of Major Hurd, mine host of the St. James Hotel. He will leave the city to-morrow on the Great Republic for St. Louis.

IN reference to bridge disasters on the Upper Mississippi, the Dubuque Herald says: This has been the most destructive season for steamboats ever known, and scarcely a day passes but what a boat or raft is knocked to pieces on those traps which span the Mississippi.

FAST TIME TO ST. LOUIS.—Passengers wanting a quick and pleasant trip to St. Louis, can be accommodated by taking the Wheeling Packet on Thursday and connecting with the splendid steamer Glasgow at Wheeling. She will positively leave on Thursday evening from that port.

THE punctual passenger steamer "Argosy," Capt. L. Vandergrift, leaves this day at noon for Cincinnati and way points. This boat has fine accommodations and attentive officers. Mr. Scott, who presides in the office, is very popular with passengers, who speak in flattering terms of the Argosy's appointments.

GLAD OF IT.—Our old friend Capt. S. Hemphill has taken charge of the office of the steamer Kenton. The Captain is one of the most accomplished officers that comes to this port. We are pleased to see him in the office of so fine a packet. Capt. Dunlap is one of thoes persons that understands his business.

THE fine passenger steamer Maggie Hays, Captain D. L. Hendrickson, is receiving for Cairo and St. Louis, and will leave on Wednesday. This boat is one of the best of her class afloat, and is a great favorite with passengers and shippers. Call early and secure a passage.

PASSENGERS and shippers would do well to bear in mind that the punctual packet Kenton, Capt. J. H. Dunlap, has the principal portion of her cargo on board for New Orleans, and will have dispatch. This boat goes through without reshipping. Capt. Dunlap is a very popular officer and has many friends, and does credit to their friendship. Our old friend Captain Sharp Hemphill will be found in the office.

THE friends of the Belle St. Louis are not pleased with the presentation of colors to the R. E. Lee, and think that Captain Cannon should not have received them. It will be remembered that the vote at the First Baptist Church Fair, at Memphis, was first counted in favor of the Belle St. Louis, but that the count was subsequently claimed to be incorrect, a check for $500 having been overlooked, or counted in as $200. Since the City of Alton has so gracefully surrendered the champion ship, the friends of the Belle St. Louis, which steamer is of the same line, think that Captain Cannon should have waived all claim to the colors, particularly as the matter is in dispute.

NEW ORLEANS, May 23.—Business on the landing was rather active. The numerous steamers that left port this afternoon showed conclusive evidence that there had been considerable orders filled within the past two or three days, as every boat was loaded to the guards. The Great Republic, punctual to the hour, backed out and down to the Point, then came up and passed the landing (where thousands were congregated) in gallant style, the great observed of all observers. She was crowded with passengrs, who are leaving thus early to spend the summer elsewhere; but we doubt very much whether they will find a more pleasant place than New Orleans for recreation.

UNREASONABLE.—The Cairo reporters want the Richmond clerks to do the fair thing. They don't know how, that is altogether out of their line. Here is what they complain of: The Richmond's officers again forgot that all the most important newspapers of St. Louis, Cincinnati and Louisville have reporters stationed at Cairo, who telegraph everything of interest in marine matters, provided the officers of boats will give them any information when requested. The clerk of the Richmond has been kindly and politely requested, each trip, by four different reporters, representing seven different newspapers, to furnish memoranda of her trips from New Orleans to Cairo, and envelopes, with printed addresses, have been furnished, to be left at Cairo. These envelopes are not made use of, and the memoranda is written out by her officers, for the various newspapers, and sent to the postoffice, although the reporters here, or their representatives, go on board the Richmond and ask for them. This was again the case last night.

THE following order was published in the New Orleans Crescent and for the benefit of our steamboat friends we reproduce it:

HEADQUARTERS BUREAU, R. F. AND A. L., DISTRICT LOUISIANA, NEW ORLEANS, May 18, 1867.

Notice is hereby given to owners, captains and agents of steamships, steamboats, barges, etc., that all vessels are liable and will be held responsible for wages due freedmen for labor performed in loading or unloading the same, when the labor has been performed under the immediate supervision of the officers of the vessels or of a contractor employed by them.

By order of Major General Jos. A. Mower, U. S. A., Assistant Commissioner

WM. H. STERLING,
Captain 1st U. S. Infantry, A. A. A. G.

*The Watts struck a heavy, floating log, and was disabled to such an extent that she was compelled to return to this port for repairs, the steamer Tacony being sent up to take the cargo and continue the voyage.

A DISCONSOLATE poet has undertaken to immortalize a recent boat disaster. The following melancholy stanza tells his version of the whole story:

She heaved and sot, and sot and heaved,
And higher her rudder flung;
And every time she heaved and sot,
A worser leak she sprung.

Poole Bill, a Mobile poet, when he saw the above, scratched his chignon for a few seconds and then scratched his paper with the following:

The water rushed in thro' the leak,
As hard as it could tare;
And the capting walked the biler deck,
A tarin' of his hair.

The capting walked the biler deck,
The boat she shuk and shivered;
Then down she went, and if she's stopped,
The stop ain't been discivered.

The capting to the top he riz,
And as he riz he said:
"The boat may go to the shades below,
But save my chambermaid!"

The Way they do Things at Memphis.

The Cincinnati Gazette has the following:

The colors which the Belle of St. Louis claims as belonging to her were presented, the other day, in Memphis, to the R. E. Lee. Of course there was an excessive quantity of characteristic Southern buncombe introduced in the affair, as well as some very poor verses, written by J. Birney Marshall, formerly of this city. Birney takes to Southern ways very aptly. Miss Julia Fayer was chief talker, and said Mr. R. E. Lee possessed

One of the few, the immortal names,
That were not born to die.

She might have included Guy Fawkes in the same category.

Capt. Cannon responded in harmonious consonance, saying:

The object in constructing this boat was to render her in every respect worthy of the great name she was to bear, and under no circumstances shall the bright colors here received ever wave over aught aboard that would for a moment blur the name she bears.

The fete closed with champagne, and as a consequence, the Avalanche had no river news next day.
